Prior to Commencement of Construction under this Lease, Tenant shall conduct a survey of the Land which provides, inter alia, a metes and bounds description of the Land and Landlord and Tenant shall, by amendment to this Lease, replace the visual depiction contained in Exhibit A with a revised Exhibit A containing such metes and bounds description, as approved by both Landlord and Tenant.

Section 2.03. Term. The term of this Lease is ninety-nine (99) years (the Termö). Landlord and Tenant agree that the Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date and expire on the Expiration Date.

Section 2.04. Use. During the Term, Tenant agrees that the Premises shall be used solely for the development, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, management and operation of the Project (as more particularly described in Exhibit B, attached hereto and made a part hereof), including any Restoration thereof, and the leasing of Residential Units and uses ancillary to the operation of the Premises as a senior living facility and for no other purpose.

Section 2.05. Ownership of the Improvements. During the Term, ownership and title to all Improvements and personal property located on the Premises (other than fee title to the land) shall be vested in and held by Tenant. During the Term, Tenant is entitled to all depreciation, allowances, investment tax credits, or other such rights, tax benefits, and privileges provided by

Subject to the rights of a Mortgagee under Section 10.04, in the event that Final Completion has not occurred by (or, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, is not contemplated to occur within) the date that is two hundred seventy (270) days after the Final Completion Date (the "Outside Final Completion Date"), Landlord shall have the right to terminate this Lease by providing notice to Tenant at any time after the Final Completion Date notifying Tenant (with a copy to each Mortgagee) of Landlord's intent to terminate (a "Termination Notice") if the Project has not been Substantially Completed by a date certain on or after the Outside Final Completion Date. Such Termination Notice must be provided not less than ninety (90) days prior to the Outside Final Completion Date in order to allow Tenant to complete the Initial Construction Work by the Outside Final Completion Date, or in the event such Termination Notice is sent on any date thereafter (i.e. less than ninety (90) days prior to the Outside Final Completion Date), Tenant shall have ninety (90) days from the date of such Termination Notice to achieve Final Completion. Any further delay in Final Completion resulting from Unavoidable Delays that occur after the Termination Notice is sent will not be counted in the determination of ninety (90) days (i.e. the ninety (90) day period will be further extended by the number of days of Unavoidable Delays occurring after the date of the Termination Notice). Section 3.04. Base Rent and Additional Costs. All of the amounts payable by Tenant to or for the benefit of Landlord pursuant to this Lease, including, without limitation, Base Rent, Additional Costs, Impositions, and all other sums, costs, expenses or deposits which Tenant in any of the provisions of this Lease assumes or agrees to pay or deposit shall constitute rent under this Lease for the purpose of Tenant's failure to pay any amounts due under this Lease after the expiration of any applicable notice and cure periods, and Landlord (in addition to all other rights and remedies) shall have all of the rights and remedies provided for herein and by law in the case of non-payment of rent. All Base Rent, Additional Costs and Impositions shall be payable without offset or deduction (except as expressly provided in this Lease) at Landlord's address set forth in this Lease or as Landlord may from time to time direct.

Upon Tenant's request, Landlord shall provide reasonable documentation of any Additional Costs paid by Landlord. Tenant shall have the right to contest the amount or validity, in whole or in part, of any Additional Costs by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted in good faith, in which event Article 34 shall govern.

IMPOSITIONS

Section 4.01. Impositions. Tenant shall pay, as hereinafter provided, all of the following items (collectively, impositions) imposed by any Governmental Authority that are applicable to the Premises or the operation thereof: (a) Taxes, (b) water, water meter and sewer rents, rates and charges, (c) excises, (d) levies, (e) license and permit fees; (f) service charges with respect to police protection, fire protection, street and highway construction, maintenance and lighting, sanitation and water supply, if any, (g) fines, penalties and other similar or like governmental charges applicable to the foregoing and any interest or costs with respect thereto, and (h) any and all other governmental levies, fees, rents, proffers, assessments or taxes and charges, general and special, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, of any kind and nature whatsoever, and any interest or costs with respect thereto, which at any time during the Term are (1) assessed, levied, confirmed, imposed upon or would have become due and payable out of or in respect of, or would have been charged with respect to, the Premises or any document to which Tenant is a party creating or transferring an interest or estate in the Premises, or the use and occupancy thereof by Tenant and (2) encumbrances or liens on (i) the Premises, or (ii) any appurtenances of the Premises, or (iii) any personal property (except personal property which is not owned by or leased to Tenant), Fixtures or other facility used in the operation thereof, or (vi) any amounts due to Landlord under this Lease, including Base Rent and Additional Costs (or any portion of either) payable by Tenant hereunder, each such Imposition, or installment thereof, during the Term to be paid not later than the Due Date thereof. However, if, by law, any Imposition may at the option of the taxpayer be paid in installments (whether or not interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of such Imposition), Tenant may exercise the option to pay the same in such installments (subject to the limitation on Tenant's obligations set forth in Section 4.04 below) and shall be responsible for the payment of such installments only, together with applicable interest, if any, relating to periods for which such installment is due, provided however, that Tenant shall have notified Landlord of its election to pay in installments prior to the Due Date of such Imposition.

Section 4.02. Receipts. Tenant, from time to time upon request of Landlord, shall promptly furnish to Landlord official receipts of the appropriate imposing authority, or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, evidencing the payment of Impositions.

Section 4.03. Landlord's Taxes. Nothing herein contained shall require Tenant to pay municipal, state or federal income, gross receipts, inheritance, estate, succession, profit, capital or transfer gains taxes of Landlord (if any), or any corporate franchise tax imposed upon Landlord (if any) or any transfer or gains tax imposed on Landlord (if any).

Section 4.04. Impositions Beyond Term. Any Imposition relating to a period, a part of which is included within the Term and a part of which is included in a period of time before the Commencement Date or after the Expiration Date (whether or not such Imposition shall be assessed, levied, confirmed, imposed upon or in respect of or become a lien upon the Premises, or shall become payable, during the Term) shall be apportioned between Landlord and Tenant as of the Commencement Date or the Expiration Date, as the case may be, so that Tenant shall pay the portion of such Imposition attributable to the part of such fiscal period included in the period of time after the Commencement Date or before the Expiration Date and Landlord shall pay the portion of such Imposition attributable to the part of such fiscal period not included in the period of time after the Commencement Date or before the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such apportionment of Impositions that are held in an Impositions Account as of the Expiration Date shall be made if this Lease is terminated prior to the Fixed Expiration Date as the result of an Event of Default.

Section 4.05. Tenant's Contest. Tenant shall have the right to contest the amount or validity, in whole or in part, of any Imposition by appropriate proceedings diligently conducted in good faith, in which event, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4.01 hereof, payment of such Imposition shall be postponed if, and only as long as:

(a) neither the Premises nor any part thereof, nor any interest of Landlord therein, nor any income of Landlord therefrom (except to the extent covered by security deposited in accordance with this Section 4.05) nor any other assets of or funds appropriated to Landlord would, by reason of such postponement or deferment, be, in the reasonable judgment of Landlord, in imminent danger of being forfeited or lost or subject to any lien, encumbrance or charge, and Landlord by reason thereof be subject to any civil or criminal liability;

(b) Tenant shall have deposited with Depository, cash or other security reasonably satisfactory to Landlord in the amount so contested and unpaid, together with all interest and penalties in connection therewith and all charges that may be assessed against or become a charge on the Premises or any part thereof in such proceedings; provided however, if a Mortgagee requires Tenant to deposit cash or other security reasonably acceptable to a Mortgagee in connection with any such contest, then Mortgagee's requirements shall take precedent over those provided in this Section 4.05(b) and shall satisfy Tenant's obligations under this Section 4.05(b), provided further, Tenant shall send notice to Landlord of such requirement with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord of Tenant's compliance with such requirement.

(c) Upon the termination of such proceedings, it shall be the obligation of Tenant to pay the amount of such Imposition or part thereof as finally determined in such proceedings, the payment of which may have been deferred during the prosecution of such proceedings, together with any costs, fees (including attorney's fees and disbursements), interest, penalties or other liabilities in connection therewith, and upon such payment, Depository shall return, with interest, if any, any amount deposited with it as aforesaid, provided however, that Depository, at Landlord's request, shall disburse said moneys on deposit with it directly to the Governmental Authority to whom such Imposition is payable and any remaining monies, with interest, if any, shall be returned promptly to Tenant. If, at any time during the continuance of such proceedings, Landlord shall, in its reasonable opinion, deem insufficient the amount deposited as aforesaid, Tenant, within fifteen (15) days after demand, shall make an additional deposit of such additional sums or other acceptable security as Landlord may reasonably request, and upon failure of Tenant to do so, the amount theretofore deposited may be applied at the request of Landlord to the payment, removal and discharge of such Imposition and the interest and penalties in connection therewith and any costs, fees (including attorney's fees and disbursements) or other liability accruing in any such proceedings, and the balance, if any, with any interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Tenant or the deficiency, if any, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within ten (10) days after demand.

Section 4.06. Contest Not Postpone Tenant's Obligation. Tenant shall have the right to seek a reduction in the valuation of the Premises assessed for Taxes or other Impositions and to prosecute any action or proceeding in connection therewith, provided that no such action or proceeding shall postpone Tenant's obligation to pay any Imposition except in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.05 hereof.

Section 4.07. Landlord Cooperation in Proceedings. Landlord shall not be required to join in any proceedings referred to in Sections 4.05 or 4.06 hereof unless the provisions of any law, rule or regulation at the time in effect shall require that such proceedings be brought by or in the name of Landlord, in which event, Landlord shall join and cooperate in such proceedings or permit the same to be brought in its name but shall not be liable for the payment of any costs or expenses in connection with any such proceedings and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any and all costs or expenses which Landlord may reasonably sustain or incur in connection with any such proceedings, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements. In the event Tenant shall institute a proceeding referred to in Sections 4.05 or 4.06 hereof and no law, rule or regulation in effect at the time requires that such proceeding be brought by or in the name of Landlord, Landlord, nevertheless, shall, at Tenant's cost and subject to the reimbursement provisions hereinabove set forth, cooperate with Tenant in such proceeding. To the extent any such proceeding results in a refund, credit, or other recompense of Taxes or other Imposition paid by Tenant, Tenant shall be entitled to the full benefit thereof and Landlord shall assign any such refund, credit, or other recompense to Tenant or as Tenant may direct, except that Landlord shall be entitled to any refund, credit, or other recompense in connection with amounts paid by Landlord for any Impositions or as reimbursement for any amounts paid by Landlord in connection with such proceedings, if any.

Section 4.08. Tax Bills. Any certificate, advice or bill of the appropriate official designated by law to make or issue the same or to receive payment of any Imposition asserting non-payment of such Imposition shall be prima facie evidence that such Imposition is due and unpaid at the time of the making or issuance of such certificate, advice or bill, at the time or date stated therein.

ARTICLE 5

DEPOSITS FOR IMPOSITIONS

Section 5.01. Impositions Subject to Deposit. Landlord, by written notice, may at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default hereunder:

(a) require Tenant to deposit each month into an account to be held with the Depository (the Impositions Account) an amount sufficient to pay 1/12th of the annual Taxes and, subject to Section 5.01(b), any Impositions required to be paid by Tenant hereunder at least thirty (30) days prior to the Due Date for such Impositions; and

(b) require that Tenant provide to Landlord evidence of payment of any Impositions that Landlord allows Tenant to pay directly during such Event of Default, that are payable on a monthly or more frequent basis within ten (10) days after the Due Date for such Impositions. Landlord may, at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, require that any Impositions that Landlord has allowed Tenant to pay directly be subject to the monthly deposit requirements of Section 5.01(a) and the other provisions of this Article 5.

Section 5.02. Deposit of Impositions. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Tenant, upon the demand of Landlord at any time, shall deposit with Depository on the first day of each month during the Term, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the annual Impositions for Taxes and those other Impositions required to be escrowed pursuant to Section 5.01(a). Except as set forth in Section 5.05 below, Landlord agrees that the amounts so deposited with the Depository shall be used to pay the Impositions for which such amounts were deposited. The Impositions Account may be held by Depository as a single bank account.

Section 5.03. Rights of Mortgagee. Notwithstanding anything in this Article 5 to the contrary, in the event that a Mortgagee (provided such Mortgagee be an Institutional Lender) shall require Tenant to deposit funds to insure payment of such Impositions, any amount so deposited by Tenant with such Mortgagee shall be credited against the amount, if any, which Tenant would otherwise be required to deposit under this Article 5.

Section 5.04. Changes to Deposits to Impositions Account.

(a) If at any time the monies so deposited by Tenant shall be insufficient to pay the next installment of Impositions then due, Tenant shall, after demand therefor by Landlord, deposit the amount of the insufficiency into the Impositions Account to enable Depository to pay the next installment of Impositions at least thirty (30) days prior to the Due Date thereof.

(b) If at any time the amount of any Imposition is increased or Landlord receives information from the entity or entities imposing such Imposition that an Imposition will be increased and the monthly deposits then being made by Tenant under this Section 5.01 would be insufficient to pay such Imposition thirty (30) days prior to the Due Date thereof, then upon notice from Landlord to Tenant of such fact, the monthly deposits shall thereupon be increased and Tenant shall deposit immediately with Depository sufficient monies for the payment of the increased Imposition. Thereafter, the monthly payments shall be adjusted so that Depository shall receive from Tenant sufficient monies to pay each Imposition at least thirty (30) days prior to the Due Date of such Imposition.

(c) For the purpose of determining whether Depository has on hand sufficient monies to pay any particular Imposition at least thirty (30) days prior to the Due Date thereof, deposits for each category of Imposition shall be treated separately. Depository shall not be obligated to use monies deposited for the payment of an Imposition not yet due and payable for the payment of an Imposition that is due and payable.

Section 5.05. Landlord's Rights During an Event of Default. At Landlord's option after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default by Tenant, Landlord may withdraw any monies deposited pursuant to Articles 4 or 5 for the cure of any monetary Event of Default. Landlord and Tenant shall enter into a mutually acceptable depository agreement with the Depository with respect to the Impositions Account. Tenant agrees that any such depository agreement will provide that Landlord will have a unilateral right to withdraw money from the Impositions Account after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default by Tenant to pay Impositions or to cure a monetary Event of Default under this Lease and Tenant shall have no consent rights over any such withdrawal. If this Lease is terminated by reason of an Event of Default or if Tenant is dispossessed of the Premises pursuant to Article 24 of the Lease, all monies deposited in the Impositions Account then held by Depository shall, at Landlord's direction, be paid and applied to Landlord in payment for such Event of Default and any and all other sums due under this Lease and Tenant shall promptly pay any resulting deficiency (if any).

Section 5.06. Interest on Impositions Account. Any interest paid on monies deposited pursuant to this Article 5 shall become a part of the Impositions Account and shall be applied pursuant to the foregoing provisions.

ARTICLE 6

LATE CHARGES

In the event that any payment of Base Rent, Additional Costs or Impositions shall become overdue beyond the due date thereof (or if no such date is set forth in this Lease, then such due date for purposes of this Article 6 shall be deemed to be the date upon which demand therefor is made), a late charge on the sums so overdue equal to the Involuntary Rate, for the period from the due date to the date of actual payment, shall become due and payable to Landlord as liquidated damages for the administrative costs and expenses incurred by Landlord by reason of Tenant's failure to make prompt payment. The late charges will be considered Additional Costs and shall be paid by Tenant within ten (10) days after demand. No failure by Landlord to insist upon the strict performance by Tenant of its obligations to pay late charges shall constitute a waiver by Landlord of its right to enforce the provisions of this Article 6 in any instance thereafter occurring. The provisions of this Article 6 shall not be construed in any way to extend the grace periods or notice periods provided for in Article 24, provided however, this Article 6 is subject to Tenant's right to contest certain Additional Costs or Impositions, and no such late charge will be incurred while Tenant is contesting any such matters in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Lease.

ARTICLE 7

INSURANCE

Section 7.01. Required Insurance.

(a) Tenant shall maintain, or cause to be maintained, at its sole cost and expense the required insurance described in Exhibit D annexed hereto. Exhibit D may require additional forms or amounts of insurance that are required to be maintained by Tenant during the Initial Construction Work or Restoration or construction of Capital Improvements, and such additional insurance requirements will be separately set forth therein.

(b) Landlord may, on a commercially reasonable basis, from time to time by written notice to Tenant require Tenant to maintain, or cause to be maintained, at its sole cost and expense, such other insurance covering insurable hazards that are commonly insured against in the case of premises located in Fairfax County, Virginia, that are similarly situated and have similar uses to that of the Premises, provided such other insurance is available on a commercially reasonable basis, provided however, that in the event Tenant disputes the reasonableness of any new Landlord requirement hereunder, Landlord and Tenant shall resolve such dispute in accordance with Article 34 below.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article 7 or in Exhibit D to the contrary, for so long as the Development Agreement has not been terminated or has expired in accordance with its terms, compliance by the Developer with the insurance requirements set forth in the Development Agreement will be deemed to be compliance with the insurance provisions of this Lease. In the event, for any reason, that Developer is not in compliance with the insurance requirements of the Development Agreement, Tenant shall be required, within five (5) Business Days after written notice thereof (or within the cure period provided in the Development Agreement, whichever is greater), either (i) procure and maintain the insurance required under this Article 7 and in Exhibit D; or (ii) cure or cause Developer to cure such noncompliance in the Development Agreement. Failure of Tenant to cure or cause the cure set forth in the immediately preceding sentence within the time periods prescribed therein, shall be an Event of Default (without further notice or cure periods) of this Lease and subject to Section 7.05 and Article 24 below.

Section 7.02. Additional Insurance Requirements.

(a) All insurance policies required by Section 7.01 shall be issued by responsible companies authorized to issue insurance in the Commonwealth of Virginia, and have an AM Best rating of not less than A:VI (or other similar rating in the event an AM Best rating is no longer available).

(b) Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate in connection with the adjustment and collection of any insurance recoveries that may be due in the event of loss, and Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord such proofs of loss and other instruments which may reasonably be required for the purpose of obtaining the recovery of any such insurance moneys.

(c) Tenant shall not carry separate liability or property insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required by this Lease to be furnished by Tenant, unless Landlord and any other parties designated by Landlord with a bona fide insurable interest are included therein as additional insureds with respect to liability and loss payees with respect to property, as their interests may appear, with loss payable as provided in this Lease. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord of the carrying of any such separate insurance and shall cause copies of the declaration page(s) of the same to be delivered as in this Lease hereinafter required.

(d) Tenant shall provide written notice to Landlord promptly after Tenant is aware that any insurance claim or insurance proceeding has been filed against Tenant.

(e) Tenant shall procure policies for all such insurance required by any provision of this Lease for periods of not less than one (1) year (if such policy term is customary and available) and shall procure renewals or replacements thereof from time to time and deliver evidence of the same to Landlord at least thirty (30) days before the expiration thereof. If Tenant shall fail to procure any such policies or renewals thereof in accordance herewith, Landlord may procure the same, and Tenant shall be obligated to reimburse Landlord as Additional Costs hereunder for all costs incurred by Landlord in connection therewith.

Section 7.03. Deposit of Insurance Premiums. Landlord, by written notice, may at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default hereunder, require Tenant to deposit on the first (1st) day of each calendar month with the Depository an amount sufficient to pay the annual premiums for insurance required to be carried by Tenant hereunder when the same shall become due and payable, provided however, if an Event of Default exists due to Tenant's failure to pay insurance premiums when due and as to which failure Landlord may (a) require payment to be made on demand or (b) pay the same, Landlord may at any time after such Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, pay such insurance premiums, whereupon Tenant shall be obligated to reimburse Landlord therefor as Additional Costs. Notwithstanding anything in this Article 7 to the contrary, in the event that a Mortgagee (provided such Mortgagee is an Institutional Lender) requires Tenant to deposit funds to insure payment of insurance premiums, any amount so deposited by Tenant with such Mortgagee shall be credited against the amount, if any, which Tenant would otherwise be required to deposit under this Section 7.03.

Section 7.04. Delivery of Certificates and Declaration Pages. Upon the execution and delivery of this Lease and thereafter not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration dates of the expiring policies theretofore furnished pursuant to this Article, certified copies of each of the policies required by this Article 7, bearing notations evidencing the payment of premiums or accompanied by other evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord of such payment, shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord. Landlord shall not be deemed to have responsibility for or knowledge of the accuracy, adequateness or compliance of such policies with the requirements set forth in this Article 7. Tenant shall, upon the written request of Landlord, obtain and deliver to Landlord, within fifteen (15) days after the date of any such request, a certificate from Tenant's insurer or independent insurance agent certifying to Landlord, as certificate holder, in reasonable detail the insurance policies then being maintained by Tenant in accordance with the requirements of this Article 7, and providing for the non-cancellation of such policies except upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord (or ten (10) Business Days in the case of non-payment of premium).

Section 7.05. Landlord's Right to Procure Insurance. If Tenant fails to obtain and maintain insurance as in this Lease provided, Landlord may, but shall not be obligated to, effect and maintain any such insurance coverage and pay premiums therefor. All premiums so paid by Landlord shall constitute Additional Costs. Such Additional Costs shall be payable by Tenant within ten (10) Business Days after written notice from Landlord that Landlord has made payment of such premiums and reimbursement is being demanded therefor. The payment by Landlord of premiums for any such insurance policy shall not be, or be deemed to be, a waiver or release of the Event of Default by Tenant with respect thereto or the right of Landlord to pursue any other remedy under this Lease or by law in relation to such Event of Default.

ARTICLE 8

USE OF INSURANCE PROCEEDS

Section 8.01. Tenant's Obligation to Restore.

(a) If all or any part of any of the Project shall be destroyed or damaged in whole or in part by fire or other casualty (including any casualty for which insurance was not obtained or obtainable) of any kind or nature, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen, Tenant shall give to Landlord immediate notice thereof, except that no notice or related approvals from Landlord shall be required if the cost of repairs, alterations, restorations, replacements and rebuilding (collectively, Restoration), as reasonably estimated by Tenant, will be less than Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000) (as such amount is adjusted on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Commencement Date and on each fifth (5th) anniversary of the Commencement Date thereafter occurring during the Term, by the percent increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for the month in which the applicable anniversary date occurs over the Consumer Price Index for the month in which the Commencement Date occurs). Whether or not the foregoing notice requirement applies, Tenant shall, whether or not such damage or destruction shall have been insured, and whether or not insurance proceeds, if any, shall be sufficient for the purpose of such Restoration, with reasonable diligence (subject to Unavoidable Delays) repair, alter, restore, replace and rebuild (collectively, Restore) the same, at least to the extent of the value it would have had absent the casualty and as nearly as possible to the condition, quality and class of the Project existing immediately prior to such occurrence, with such changes or alterations as Tenant, with the consent of Landlord, may elect to make, provided that, after the Restoration, the Project shall be in substantial conformity with the original Plans and Specifications; with any changes as mutually agreed to by Tenant and Landlord, acting in their reasonable discretion. If Tenant shall fail or neglect to Restore with reasonable diligence (subject to Unavoidable Delays) the Project or the portion thereof so damaged or destroyed, or having so commenced such Restoration, shall fail to complete the same with reasonable diligence (subject to Unavoidable Delays) in accordance with the terms of this Lease, or if prior to the completion of any such Restoration by Tenant, this Lease shall expire or be terminated for any reason, Landlord may after written notice to Tenant and expiration of the cure periods applicable to such failure, but shall not be required to, complete such Restoration at Tenant's expense. Each such Restoration shall be done in accordance with the provisions of this Lease. In any case where this Lease shall expire or be terminated prior to the completion of Restoration, Tenant shall account to Landlord for all amounts spent in connection with any Restoration which was undertaken and shall pay over to Landlord, within ten (10) days after demand, the remainder, if any, of the Restoration Funds previously received by it. Tenant's obligations for any Restoration which commenced (or which Tenant was obligated to commence) under this Section 8.01 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Lease.

(b) Tenant will commence Restoration no later than six (6) months after the casualty and shall continue thereafter diligently and without interruption as provided herein. Tenant shall diligently prosecute such Restoration to completion, and in any event, such Restoration shall be completed, subject to Unavoidable Delays, within eighteen (18) months after the commencement of the Restoration. In the event Tenant does not commence Restoration within the applicable time period, or if Tenant does not thereafter diligently prosecute such Restoration to completion and complete such Restoration within the applicable time period (subject to Unavoidable Delay), then it shall be an Event of Default hereunder.

(c) In no event will Landlord be obligated to Restore the Project or any portion thereof or to pay any of the costs or expenses thereof.

Section 8.02. Restoration Approvals. Prior to commencing any Restoration, Tenant shall submit completed final drawings and plans and specifications (which may be in the form of field marked copies of the original plans and specifications) for the Restoration prepared by an Architect which comply with the all Applicable Laws and, to the extent possible given the amount of damage and destruction to the Project, materially conform to the original Plans and Specifications approved by Landlord for the Initial Construction Work or with any changes as mutually agreed to by Tenant and Landlord, acting in their reasonable discretion (the Restoration Plans and Specifications). Landlord shall review the proposed Restoration Plans and Specifications to determine whether they do so materially comply. If Landlord determines that they do so comply, Landlord shall so notify Tenant in writing. If Landlord reasonably determines that the Restoration Plans and Specifications, as so revised, do not materially comply with the first sentence of this Section (and any changes agreed to by the parties), Landlord shall so notify Tenant, specifying in writing in what respects they do not so comply. In such latter event, Tenant and Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with one another in addressing the comments of Landlord. Tenant shall revise the proposed Restoration Plans and Specifications to reflect the agreed upon changes and shall then resubmit the Restoration Plans and Specifications to Landlord for review. The initial review by Landlord shall be carried out within twenty (20) Business Days of the date of submission of the Restoration Plans and Specifications; Landlord's review of revisions to the Restoration Plans and Specifications shall be carried out within twenty (20) Business Days of the date of submission of the revised Restoration Plans and Specifications. If Landlord has not notified Tenant of its determination within the applicable period, Landlord shall be deemed to have approved the Restoration Plans and Specifications and determined that they materially comply with this Section, with any changes mutually agreed to by Tenant and Landlord.

Section 8.03. Control of Proceeds. So long as a Mortgagee holds a Mortgage on the Premises, the proceeds of any fire or casualty insurance with respect thereto may be made payable to such Mortgagee or, if provided in the Mortgage, an insurance trustee, for application in accordance with the terms of the Mortgage, and such proceeds shall be held and disbursed by the Mortgagee to apply to the costs of Restoration pursuant to such provisions as the Mortgage may provide therefor. In the event that there is not a Mortgagee with respect the Premises at the time of such casualty (or any existing Mortgage is fully discharged by application of a portion of the insurance proceeds), or in the event the proceeds of fire or casualty insurance are not required to be paid to a Mortgagee or insurance trustee to Restore the Project under the terms of the applicable Mortgage but are nevertheless available to Tenant for such purposes, then the insurance proceeds (or remaining proceeds after the first use of insurance proceeds to discharge Mortgages) shall be deposited with the Depository (other than proceeds for rent insurance) and shall be subject to monthly disbursement procedures as more fully described in Section 8.04 below. If the insurance proceeds available for such purpose are not sufficient to Restore the Project to its prior condition or to a condition in compliance with this Lease, Tenant shall nonetheless, at its own cost and expense, provide the funds necessary, or obtain new financing as necessary, to Restore the Project to such condition. Provided no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, any excess insurance proceeds remaining after the Restoration of the Project shall be paid over to Tenant or as Tenant may direct. If Depository is to disburse the insurance proceeds, the provisions of Section 8.04 shall apply.

Section 8.04. Conditions Precedent to Disbursements. The following shall be conditions precedent to each payment made to Tenant by Depository if required in Section 8.03 above:

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 8.04, Section 8.05 and, if applicable, Section 8.06, Depository shall pay over to Tenant from time to time, upon the following terms, any monies which may be received by Depository from insurance provided by Tenant (other than rent insurance) or cash or the proceeds of any security deposited with Depository pursuant to Section 8.06 (collectively, the "Restoration Funds"); provided however, that Depository, before paying such monies over to Tenant, shall be entitled to reimburse itself and Landlord therefrom to the extent, if any, of the necessary, reasonable and proper expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) paid or incurred by Depository and Landlord in the collection of such monies. Depository shall pay to Tenant, as hereinafter provided, the Restoration Funds, for the purpose of the Restoration.

(b) Prior to commencing any Restoration, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with an estimate of the cost of such Restoration, prepared by an Architect. Landlord, at Landlord's expense, may engage a licensed professional engineer or registered architect to prepare its own estimate of the cost of such Restoration. If there is any dispute as to the estimated cost of the Restoration, such dispute shall be resolved by dispute resolution in accordance with the provisions of Article 34, and any time required to resolve such dispute shall constitute an Unavoidable Delay in the Restoration process.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 8.04, Section 8.05 and, if applicable, Section 8.06, the Restoration Funds shall be paid to Tenant in installments as the Restoration progresses, upon application to be submitted by Tenant to Depository and Landlord showing the cost of labor and materials purchased and delivered to the Premises for incorporation in the Restoration, or incorporated therein since the last previous application, and due and payable or paid by Tenant. If any vendor's, mechanic's, laborer's, or materialman's lien is filed against the Premises or any part thereof, or if any public improvement lien relating to the Restoration of the Premises is created or permitted to be created by Tenant and is filed against Landlord, or any assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord, Tenant shall not be entitled to receive any further installment until such lien is satisfied or discharged (by bonding or otherwise). Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to the provisions of Section 8.04(d), the existence of any such lien shall not preclude Tenant from receiving any installment of Restoration Funds, provided such lien will be discharged with funds from such installment.

(d) The amount of any installment to be paid to Tenant shall be (i) the product of (x) the total Restoration Funds and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the cost of labor and materials theretofore incorporated (or delivered to the Premises to be incorporated) by Tenant in the Restoration and the denominator of which is the total estimated cost of the Restoration, such estimated cost determined in accordance with Section 8.04(b), less (ii) (A) all payments theretofore made to Tenant out of the Restoration Funds.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord makes the Restoration at Tenant's expense, as provided in Section 8.01(a), then Depository shall pay over the Restoration Funds to Landlord, upon request, to the extent not previously paid to Tenant pursuant to this Section 8.04, and Tenant shall pay to Landlord, within ten (10) days after demand, any sums in excess of the portion of the Restoration Funds received by Landlord necessary to complete the Restoration. Upon completion of the Restoration, Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a certificate, in reasonable detail, setting forth the expenditures made by Landlord for such Restoration.

(f) There shall be submitted to Depository and Landlord the certificate of Architect in industry standard form to the effect that (i) the sum then requested to be withdrawn either has been paid by Tenant or is due and payable to contractors, subcontractors, materialmen, engineers, architects or other Persons (whose names and addresses shall be stated) who have rendered or furnished services or materials for the work and giving a brief description of such services and materials and the principal subdivisions or categories thereof and the several amounts so paid or due to each of said Persons in respect thereof, and stating in reasonable detail the progress of the work up to the date of said certificate, (ii) no part of such expenditures has been or is being made the basis, in any previous or then pending requisition, for the withdrawal of the Restoration Funds or has been made out of the Restoration Funds previously received by Tenant, (iii) the sum then requested does not exceed the value of the services and materials described in the certificate, and (iv) the balance of the Restoration Funds held by Depository will be sufficient upon completion of the Restoration to pay for the same in full, and stating in reasonable detail an estimate of the cost of such completion;

(g) There shall be furnished to Landlord an official search, or a certificate of a title insurance company reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, showing that there has not been filed any vendor's, mechanic's, laborer's or materialman's statutory or other similar lien affecting the Premises or any part thereof, or any public improvement lien with respect to the Premises or the Restoration created or permitted to be created by Tenant affecting Landlord, or the assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord, which had not been satisfied or discharged (by bonding or otherwise) except such as will be discharged upon payment of the requisite amount out of the sum then requested to be withdrawn; and

(h) At the time of making such payment, there is no existing and unremedied Event of Default on the part of Tenant.

Section 8.05. Major Casualty.

(a) If any loss, damage or destruction occurs, the cost of Restoration of which equals or exceeds Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) in the aggregate, determined as provided in Section 8.04(b) (as such amount is adjusted on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Commencement Date and on each fifth (5th) anniversary of the Commencement Date thereafter occurring during the Term, by the percent increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for the month in which the applicable anniversary date occurs over the Consumer Price Index for the month in which the Commencement Date occurs, in addition to the requirements set forth in this Article 8 with respect to Restoration, Tenant shall comply with the terms of Section 11.02,

Section 11.04, Section 11.05, Section 11.06, Section 11.07, Section 11.08, Section 11.11, Section 11.12 and Section 11.15 with respect to such Restoration.

(b) Notwithstanding that the cost of Restoration is less than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) (as such amount is increased as provided in Section 8.05(a)), such cost to be determined as provided in Section 8.04(b), to the extent that any portion of the Restoration involves, (i) a material changes to the exterior of the Project, or (ii) a change in the height, bulk or setback of the Project from the height, bulk or setback existing immediately prior to the damage or destruction, then Tenant shall furnish to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to commencement of the Restoration a complete set of Restoration Plans and Specifications for the Restoration, involving such work or such change, prepared by an Architect, subject to Landlord's review and approval as provided in this Article 8.

(c) In the event Tenant shall desire to modify the Restoration Plans and Specifications which Landlord theretofore has approved pursuant to Sections 8.02 or Article 11, Tenant shall submit the proposed modifications to Landlord. Landlord shall review the proposed changes to determine whether or not they (i) conform to the requirements of Section 8.01 and (ii) provide for design, equipment, engineering and materials which are comparable in quality to those provided for in the approved plans and specifications, and shall approve such proposed changes if they do so conform and so provide. If Landlord determines that the proposed changes are not satisfactory in light of the above criteria, it shall so advise Tenant, specifying in what respect the plans and specifications, as so modified, do not conform to requirements above. Tenant shall revise the plans and specifications so as to meet Landlord's objections and shall deliver same to Landlord for review. Each review by Landlord shall be carried out within twenty (20) Business Days of the date of delivery of the plans and specifications, as so revised (or one or more portions thereof), by Tenant, and if Landlord shall not have notified Tenant of its determination within such twenty (20) Business Day period, Landlord shall be deemed to have determined that the proposed changes are satisfactory.

Section 8.06. Deposit of Proceeds. If the cost of any Restoration, determined as provided in Section 8.04(b), exceeds both (i) Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) (as such amount shall be increased as provided in Section 8.05(a)) and (ii) the Restoration Funds, after all required payments to Mortgagees are made, then, prior to the commencement of such Restoration, Tenant shall deposit with Depository, as security for completion of the Restoration, a bond, cash or other security reasonably satisfactory to Landlord in the amount of such excess, to be held and applied by Depository in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.04; provided however, that if Tenant has made arrangements for additional financing from a Mortgagee for portions of the cost of the Restoration then such portion of the Restoration costs expected to be advanced by the Mortgagee for such purpose need not be deposited with the Depository, and the new Mortgagee may act as the Depository with respect to disbursement of the insurance proceeds then available.

Section 8.07. No Abatement. This Lease shall not terminate or be forfeited or be affected in any manner, and there shall be no reduction or abatement of Base Rent, Additional Costs or Impositions payable hereunder, by reason of damage to or total, substantial or partial destruction of any of the Project or any part thereof or by reason of the untenability of the same or any part thereof, for or due to any reason or cause whatsoever, and Tenant, notwithstanding any law or statute present or future, waives any and all rights to quit or surrender the Premises or any part thereof. Tenant expressly agrees that its obligations hereunder, including, without limitation, the payment of all Additional Costs and Impositions required by this Lease shall continue as though the Project had not been damaged or destroyed and without abatement, suspension, diminution or reduction of any kind.

Section 8.08. As-Built Plans. If for any completed Restoration the cost of which exceeds Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) (as such amount shall be increased as provided in Section 8.05(a)), Tenant has not theretofore delivered same to Landlord, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord, within ninety (90) days of the completion of such Restoration, a complete set of "as built" plans therefore (which may be in the form of field marked copies of the original plans and specifications) together with a statement in writing from Tenant or its Architect that such plans are complete and correct in all material respects.

Section 8.09. Casualty Where Restoration is Impossible or at End of Term. In the event of substantial damage or destruction by a casualty at any time after the ninety-fifth (95th) anniversary of the Commencement Date, and so long as no Tenant Event of Default exists hereunder, Tenant, in lieu of Restoring the Project, subject to the rights of any Mortgagee, shall have the right to terminate this Lease upon thirty (30) days' notice to Landlord, in which event all insurance proceeds in respect of such casualty (or a sum equivalent to such amount) shall be payable as follows: first, to satisfy Tenant's obligations to any and all Mortgagees; second, to the demolition, clearing and grading work occasioned by such casualty described below; third, to pay any Additional Costs or other amounts owed by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease; and fourth, to be divided between Tenant and Landlord in relation to the loss sustained by each, taking into consideration the remaining Term and the discounted value of Landlord's remainder interest in the Improvements destroyed by such destruction, Tenant's interest in the remainder of the Term and the Improvements and such other matters as shall be appropriate to determining the amount of such loss after any taxes or other charges have been paid. If the parties are unable to agree on such division at the end of the immediately preceding sentence, then the division shall be made pursuant to dispute resolution in the manner provided in Article 34 hereof. Tenant, at its sole expense, shall deliver to Landlord any plans or other technical materials related to the design and construction of the Improvements and, at the request of Landlord, shall remove any damaged Improvements and restore that portion of the Premises on which the demolished Improvements were located to a cleared and safe condition and at a grade approximately level with the abutting land and otherwise in accordance with all Applicable Laws relating to the removal of Improvements on the Property. Upon the completion of any such demolition, clearing and grading work to the reasonable satisfaction of Landlord and the payment of such portion of any such insurance proceeds due to Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Section 8.09, and provided that no Tenant Event of Default exists hereunder, this Lease shall be terminated without liability or further recourse to the parties hereto, provided that any Additional Costs owed by Tenant to Landlord as of the date of said termination shall be paid or otherwise carried out in full.

ARTICLE 9

CONDEMNATION

Section 9.01. Taking of All or Substantially All of Premises.

(a) If the whole or substantially all of the Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public purpose by any lawful power or authority by the exercise of the right of condemnation or eminent domain or by agreement among Landlord, Tenant and those authorized to exercise such right, this Lease and the Term shall terminate and expire on the date of such taking.

(b) The term “substantially all of the Premises” shall mean such portion of the Premises as when so taken would leave remaining a balance of the Premises which, due either to the area so taken or the location of the part so taken in relation to the part not so taken, would not under economic conditions, applicable zoning laws or building regulations then existing or prevailing permit the economic operations of the Project for their permitted uses hereunder.

(c) Each of the parties shall execute any and all documents that may be reasonably required in order to facilitate collection by them of such awards.

Section 9.02. Date of Taking. For purposes of this Article 9, the date that the Premises will be deemed to be “taken” will be on the earlier of (i) the date on which actual possession of the whole or substantially all of the Premises, or a part thereof, as the case may be, is acquired by any lawful power or authority pursuant to the provisions of the applicable federal or Virginia law or (ii) the date in which title to the Premises or the aforesaid portion thereof shall have vested in any lawful power or authority pursuant to the provisions of the applicable federal or Virginia law.

Section 9.03. Partial Taking: Tenant's Obligation to Restore. If less than substantially all of the Premises shall be so taken, this Lease and the Term shall continue as to the portion of the Premises remaining without abatement of Base Rent or Additional Costs or Impositions or diminution of any of Tenant's obligations hereunder. Tenant, whether or not the award or awards, if any, shall be sufficient for the purpose shall (subject to Unavoidable Delays) proceed diligently to Restore any remaining part of the Project not so taken so that the latter shall be complete, operable and in good condition and repair in conformity with the requirements of Section 8.01. In the event of a partial taking pursuant to this Section, the entire award attributable to such taking shall be deposited with the Depository for application to the cost of Restoration of the part of the Project not so taken. Subject to the provisions and limitations in this Article 9, Depository shall make available to Tenant as much of that portion of the award actually received and held by Depository, if any, less all necessary and proper expenses paid or incurred by Depository, the Mortgagee most senior in lien and Landlord in the condemnation proceedings, as may be necessary to pay the cost of Restoration of the part of the Project remaining. Such Restoration shall be done in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Article 8. Payments to Tenant as aforesaid shall be disbursed in the manner and subject to the conditions set forth in Article 8. Any balance of the award held by Depository and any cash and the proceeds of any security deposited with Depository pursuant to Section 9.04 remaining after completion of the Restoration shall be paid to Tenant or its Mortgagee, if any. Each of the parties shall execute any and all documents that may be reasonably required in order to facilitate collection by them of such awards.

Section 9.04. Condemnation Award. In any condemnation proceedings, Landlord and Tenant each agree to cooperate in obtaining the highest award possible and agree to request that separate awards be made for Landlord's and Tenant's interests in the Premises and the Improvements. In the event that separate awards are not made for Landlord's and Tenant's interests in the Premises and the Improvements, any compensation which may be awarded on account of the taking of all of the Premises, and Improvements by eminent domain shall be fairly allocated between the ownership of the fee and the leasehold estates in accordance with the loss and damage suffered by each, taking into consideration all the relevant facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, the then present value of the Premises and all of the Improvements and the present value of Landlord's remainder interest in such Improvements as well as the value of Landlord's and Tenant's interest in the Lease for the remainder of the Term (i.e. from the date the Premises is taken until the Fixed Expiration Date). If the parties are unable to agree on the allocation of the condemnation award between Landlord and Tenant (the Respective Allocations) within thirty (30) days after the condemnation proceedings have terminated, the allocation shall be determined by appraisal, using the method hereinafter set forth:

(a) If, during such negotiation period, the parties do not agree in writing, Landlord and Tenant shall each designate in writing, within seven (7) days after the expiration of the aforementioned thirty (30) day period, an MAI or similarly accredited appraiser (an Appraiser) having at least ten (10) years experience in the appraisal of commercial real estate in the Northern Virginia area of metropolitan Washington, DC for purposes of determining the Respective Allocations. The Appraiser may not be affiliated in any respect with either Landlord or Tenant or their respective affiliates. Within fifteen (15) days after the designation of the Appraisers, the two Appraisers so designated shall designate a third Appraiser of the same qualifications. The Appraisers so designated shall, within sixty (60) days after the date of the third Appraiser is designated, determine the Respective Allocations.

(b) If the three Appraisers are unable to agree upon the Respective Allocations, then the Respective Allocations shall be the average of the two closest appraisals. Landlord and Tenant shall each cooperate with the Appraisers and provide all information reasonably requested by the Appraisers to all three (3) Appraisers at the same time. Any information provided by Landlord or Tenant to the Appraisers shall also simultaneously be delivered to the other party hereto. Each Appraisers shall give written notice to the parties stating his determination, and shall furnish to each party a copy of such determination signed by him.

(c) The determination of such Appraisers shall be final and binding upon the parties and a final judgment thereon may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction on the petition of either party. If either party, or the two Appraisers designated by the parties, fail to timely designate an Appraiser (or a replacement Appraiser pursuant to the next sentence), then either party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to make such designation. In the event of the failure, refusal or inability of any Appraiser to act, a new Appraiser with the qualifications described above shall be appointed promptly in his stead. The party who designated the Appraiser so failing, refusing or unable to act shall designate the replacement Appraiser, or, if the Appraiser failing, refusing or unable to act was the Appraiser designated jointly by the parties, the parties shall jointly designate the replacement Appraiser.

(d) Landlord and Tenant shall each bear the cost of its Appraiser and Landlord and Tenant shall share equally the cost of the third Appraiser. If the Appraisers shall fail to make the determination herein provided, then either party shall have the right to institute such action or proceeding in such court as shall be appropriate in the circumstances and Tenant and Landlord shall share equally the cost of such action.

Section 9.05. Temporary Taking. If the temporary use of the whole or any part of the Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public purpose by any lawful power or authority by the exercise of the right of condemnation or eminent domain or by agreement between Tenant and those authorized to exercise such right, Tenant shall give prompt notice thereof to Landlord and the Term shall not be reduced or affected in any way and Tenant shall continue to pay all Additional Costs and Impositions payable by Tenant hereunder without reduction or abatement and perform all of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, and Tenant shall be entitled to receive for itself any award or payments made in connection with such temporary taking, provided however, if the taking is for a period extending beyond the Term, such award or payment shall be apportioned between Landlord and Tenant as of the Expiration Date; and further provided however, that the amount of any award or payment allowed or retained for the Restoration of the Project and not previously applied for such purpose shall remain the property of Landlord, if this Lease shall expire prior to such Restoration.

Section 9.06. Sale in Lieu of Condemnation. In the event of a negotiated sale of all or a portion of the Premises in lieu of condemnation, the proceeds shall be distributed as provided in cases of condemnation as provided in Section 9.04 above.

Section 9.07. Participation in Proceedings. Landlord, Tenant and any Mortgagee shall be entitled to file a claim and otherwise participate in any condemnation or similar proceeding and all hearings, trials and appeals in respect thereof.

Section 9.08. Claims for Personal Property. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 9, in the event of any permanent or temporary taking of all or any part of the Premises, Tenant (and, if applicable, its subtenants) shall have the exclusive right to assert claims for any trade fixtures and personal property so taken which were the property of Tenant or its tenants (but not including any Fixtures) and for relocation expenses of Tenant or its tenants, and all awards and damages in respect thereof shall belong to Tenant or its tenants, as applicable, and Landlord hereby waives any and all claims to any part thereof; provided however, that if there shall be no separate award or allocation for such trade fixtures or personal property, then such claims of Tenant and its tenants, or awards and damages, shall be addressed as provided in Section 9.04.

ARTICLE 10

ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, MORTGAGES, ETC.

Section 10.01. Assignment; Subletting; Transfers.

(a) Tenant acknowledges that Landlord has examined and relied on (i) the creditworthiness and experience of Tenant, and (ii) Tenant's or its Affiliate's (if applicable) management and operation of properties such as the Project, in agreeing to lease the Premises to Tenant pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Lease. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 10.01:

(i) neither this Lease nor any interest of Tenant in this Lease, shall be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred, whether by operation of law or otherwise;

(ii) Tenant shall not sublet all or any portion of the Premises (except in connection with a Residential Lease or other leases typically entered into in connection with ancillary or incidental uses typically found in residential apartment projects);

(iii) nor shall any of the: (A) general or limited partnership interests of Tenant (if Tenant is a partnership), or (B) membership interests of Tenant (if Tenant is a limited liability company), or (C) issued or outstanding capital stock of Tenant (if Tenant is a corporation); be (voluntarily or involuntarily) sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or encumbered, whether by operation of law or otherwise, nor shall any voting trust or similar agreement be entered into with respect to such stock, nor any reclassification or modification of the terms of such stock take place, nor shall there be any merger or consolidation of such corporation into or with another corporation nor shall additional stock (or any warrants, options or debt securities convertible, directly or indirectly, into such stock) in any such corporation be issued if the issuance of such additional stock (or such other securities, when exercised or converted into stock), will result in a change of the controlling stock ownership of such corporation as held by the shareholders thereof as of the Commencement Date, provided however, Tenant may transfer such partnership interests, membership interests or capital stock (as applicable) in accordance with Article 38 below, so long as Control of Tenant does not change (i.e. the possession of power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policy of Tenant remains the same as prior to such transfer of interests or capital stock) and such transfer made in accordance with this proviso shall not constitute a Transfer.

Each of the foregoing transactions referenced in (i) through (iii) above are hereinafter referred to as a Transfer.

(b) Tenant may not make any Transfer prior to or within the first five (5) years after Final Completion. After the five (5) year anniversary of the Final Completion, Tenant may not make a Transfer, except upon the prior written approval of Landlord, which Landlord may grant or withhold in its sole and absolute discretion (subject to Section 10.01(e) below), provided however, that Landlord's consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed so long as (i) no Event of Default shall have occurred and then be continuing hereunder (or such Event of Default is cured simultaneously with such Transfer), and (ii) Tenant shall have otherwise complied with the provisions of this Article 10.

(c) Tenant may not make a Transfer to any Person, in which, an ownership interest, in the aggregate, of five percent (5%) or greater is then held, directly or indirectly (other than as a result of ownership of publicly traded securities), by any individual (i) who has ever been convicted of a felony, (ii) against whom any action or proceeding is pending to enforce rights of the Commonwealth of Virginia or the County of Fairfax, Virginia or any agency, department, public authority or public benefit corporation of either, or (iii) with respect to whom any notice of substantial monetary default which remains uncured has been given by the Commonwealth of Virginia, the County of Fairfax, Virginia or any agency, department, public authority or any public benefit corporation of either.

(d) In each instance wherein Tenant desires to effect a Transfer, and as a condition to the effectiveness thereof, Tenant shall, prior to the effective date of such transaction, notify Landlord of the proposed transaction and submit to Landlord the following documents and information (which documents may be unexecuted but shall, in all other respects, be in substantially final form) and such other information and documents Landlord may reasonably require:

(i) a copy of the proposed instrument(s) of assignment or sublease of the Premises or assignment of ownership interests in Tenant containing, inter alia, the name, address and telephone number of the assignee;

(ii) a copy of the proposed instrument(s) of assumption of Tenant's obligations under this Lease by said assignee (which need not be in a separate document from the instrument of assignment);

(iii) a certificate of the assignee or subtenant (or an authorized officer, general partner or managing member thereof), setting forth (x) in the case of a partnership or limited liability company, the names and addresses of all partners (general and limited (if applicable)) or members thereof of the assignee having a five percent (5%) or greater ownership interest in the assignee, (y) in the case of a corporation, the names and addresses of all persons having five percent (5%) or greater record ownership of stock in the assignee, and all directors and officers of the assignee; provided however, that in the case of an entity whose equity interests are publicly traded the names of the holders of publicly traded securities need not be disclosed; and

(iv) any such other documents and information as Landlord may reasonably request to permit Landlord to evaluate whether the proposed transferee or sublessee meets the criteria set forth in Section 10.01(e).

Landlord shall within twenty (20) Business Days after receipt of the foregoing, notify Tenant whether it grants its consent to such Transfer. In the event that Landlord denies its consent to such transaction or determines that the information provided in the applicable certificate is insufficient to determine whether or not Landlord's consent may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, then Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing specifying the reasons for such denial or determination. If Landlord shall not have notified Tenant of such denial or determination within such period, Landlord shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed transaction and to have determined that the documents and the information submitted establish compliance with the applicable provisions of this Section 10.01. Tenant agrees to bear and shall pay or reimburse Landlord on demand for all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by Landlord in connection with the review, approval and documentation of any Transfer under this Article 10. If Landlord has consented (or be deemed to have consented) to the proposed Transfer or has determined that the documents and information establish compliance with the applicable provisions of this Section 10.01, such consent or determination will still be conditioned upon the delivery to Landlord of the applicable executed documents of Transfer, assignment, or conveyance and receipt of payment or reimbursement by Landlord as set forth in the preceding sentence. Any attempted or purported Transfer, if made in contravention of this Article 10, shall be null and void and of no force and effect and shall constitute an immediate Event of Default under this Lease.

(e) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this Article 10 to the contrary, Landlord will not unreasonably withhold its consent to any proposed Transfer provided no Event of Default is then existing hereunder (or such Event of Default is cured simultaneously with such Transfer) and that the proposed transferee satisfies the following conditions:

(i) the proposed transferee shall have (or shall be Controlled by an entity that has) or shall have arranged for management services through an asset management or property management company approved by Landlord (which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) that has at least ten (10) years of experience in operating and maintaining apartment projects similar or larger in size to the Project;

(ii) the proposed transferee shall have or shall be Controlled by an entity that has a Net Worth at least equal to the Net Worth Requirement;

(iii) the proposed transferee shall use the Premises for the uses permitted under this Lease;

(iv) the proposed transferee is not a person or entity prohibited from owning the interests of Tenant hereunder pursuant to Section 10.01(c) above; and

(v) Tenant shall pay all of Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses related to its review and approval of the Transfer.

(f) Subject to compliance by a Mortgagee with the provisions of Sections 10.04 hereof, the requirements in this Section 10.01 of consent by Landlord shall not apply to the acquisition of the Premises by such Mortgagee or another purchaser of the Premises pursuant to a foreclosure of a Mortgage or through a deed or instrument of transfer delivered in lieu of such foreclosure, so long as such Mortgagee or purchaser, as applicable, shall, in the instrument transferring to such Mortgagee the interest of Tenant hereunder, assume and agree to perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease thereafter to be observed or performed by Tenant. The notice and review periods set forth in this Section 10.01 shall not apply (i) in connection with a transfer by a Mortgagee to a purchaser from Mortgagee after a foreclosure or acceptance of a deed or instrument of transfer delivered in lieu of foreclosure, or (ii) to any purchaser at foreclosure; provided however, the criteria set forth in Section 10.01(e)(i)-(v) shall apply to any such purchaser except Mortgagee. Each reference in this Section 10.01 to "Mortgagee" shall be deemed to include a wholly owned subsidiary (direct or indirect) of such Mortgagee or its direct parent, provided such Mortgagee has delivered to Landlord a written notice advising that such a subsidiary should be so deemed and certifying (i) that such subsidiary is wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by such Mortgagee or its direct parent and (ii) that such subsidiary is authorized to act in the place and stead of such Mortgagee.

(g) Any Transfer approved by Landlord in accordance with, or otherwise allowed (with or without Landlord's approval) pursuant to the terms of this Article 10 shall be a "Permitted Transfer". Upon a Permitted Transfer, the previous "Tenant" shall be relieved from all subsequent obligations and liabilities arising under this Lease.

(h) No assignment of this Lease, subletting of the Premises as an entirety or substantially as an entirety or other Transfer shall have any validity except upon compliance with the provisions of this Article 10.

(i) Any assignment of this Lease shall not be effective for purposes of this Lease unless and until the assignee, in the case of an assignment, shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Landlord an agreement, whereby the assignee shall (A) assume the obligations and performance of this Lease and agree to be bound by all of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions hereof on the part of Tenant to be performed or observed on and after the effective date of any such assignment, and (B) agree that the provisions of this Article 10 shall, notwithstanding such assignment, continue to be binding upon assignee in the future. Tenant covenants that, if Tenant engages in an assignment or transfer in violation of the provisions of this Lease, Tenant shall remain fully and primarily and jointly and severally liable for the payment of all Additional Costs and Impositions due and to become due under this Lease and for the performance and observance of all of the covenants, agreements, terms, provisions and conditions of this Lease on the part of Tenant to be performed or observed until a Permitted Transfer occurs.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.01 to the contrary, Tenant may sublease any of the Residential Units to Residential Tenants (and any commercial space on the Premises, if any, to commercial tenants) in the ordinary course of Tenant's business without obtaining Landlord's prior consent; and any subleasing as provided in this subsection (j) shall not be considered a Transfer for purposes of this Article 10, and provided further, that any such subleasing of Residential Units is in compliance with the Exhibit H and Section 26.04 below.

(k) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.01 to the contrary, provided Tenant (i) is not in an Event of Default, (ii) provides at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord of Tenant's intention to assign this Lease to an Affiliate of Tenant, (iii) Tenant provides Landlord with such reasonable documentation as requested by Landlord in order to verify compliance with Sections 10.01(e)(i)-(iv) above, and (iv) Tenant pays Landlord's out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with Section 10.01(e)(v) above, Tenant may assign this Lease or transfer all or any portion of the Premises to an Affiliate of Tenant without Landlord's consent or approval being required and such Transfer or assignment shall be a Permitted Transfer hereunder.

Section 10.02. Consent Limited to Transaction. Any consent by Landlord under Section 10.01 above shall apply only to the specific transaction thereby authorized and shall not relieve Tenant from any requirement hereunder of obtaining the consent of Landlord to any further Transfer of this Lease or the interests of Tenant.

Section 10.03. Landlord's Right of First Offer. Subject and subordinate to Section 10.01(k) above, in the event Tenant would like to make a Permitted Transfer with respect to all or any portion of the Premises (the "Proposed Transfer Premises") pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Article 10, Tenant shall promptly give Landlord notice of such election and shall first offer to transfer the Proposed Transfer Premises to Landlord or an Affiliate of Landlord pursuant to the terms of this Section 10.03. Such offer may be made by Tenant to Landlord prior to the time Tenant has made an offer to or received an offer from any third party.

(a) Tenant shall offer (the "Offer") to transfer to Landlord the Proposed Transfer Premises pursuant to terms determined in Tenant's sole and absolute discretion (the "Offer Terms"). The Offer shall be irrevocable for a period ending at 5:00 P.M. east coast time, on the sixtieth (60th) day (or the next Business Day if the sixtieth (60th) day is not a Business Day) following the day on which the Offer was made (the "Offer Period").

(b) In the event that the Offer is accepted by the Landlord during the Offer Period, Landlord shall close on the Proposed Transfer Premises within sixty (60) days after the Offer is accepted (or such longer time as is agreed to by the parties in writing) in accordance with the Offer Terms; provided however, that in the event that such closing does not occur within such period as a result of a default by Landlord after acceptance, then Tenant shall be entitled to Transfer the Proposed Transfer Premises to any third party in accordance with this Section 10.03(c). Landlord and Tenant shall execute such documents and instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effect the transfer of the Proposed Transfer Premises pursuant to the terms of the Offer and this Section 10.03. In the event that Landlord does not elect to accept the Offer, Landlord may, at its election, make a counteroffer ("Counteroffer") setting forth the price and other material terms on which Landlord would be willing to purchase the Proposed Transfer Premises, but Tenant has no obligation to accept or otherwise address any such Counteroffer. If Tenant elects to accept the Counteroffer, the parties shall close on the Proposed Transfer Premises in accordance with this Section 10.03(c).

(c) If the Offer is not accepted by Landlord (or a proposed Counteroffer is not accepted by Tenant) in the manner hereinabove provided, Tenant may transfer the Proposed Transfer Premises at any time within nine (9) months after the last day of the Offer Period, provided that the terms of any such Transfer of the Proposed Transfer Premises to such third party are substantially the same as the Offer Terms (which, in the case of price, means that the sale price is not less than: (i) ninety-five percent (95%) of the sale price set forth in the Offer Terms if Landlord did not make a Counteroffer, or (2) one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of the Counteroffer price if a Counteroffer was made). In the event that the Proposed Transfer Premises are not transferred to an unrelated third party within such nine (9) month period, such Transfer shall again be subject to all of the terms of this Section 10.03. If Tenant is required to re-offer the Proposed Transfer Premises to Landlord during such nine (9) month period, the procedures in subsections 10.03(a) and (b) shall apply.

(d) The Landlord's right of first offer set out in this Section 10.03 is intended to apply only to the sale of the Proposed Transfer Premises by Tenant and is not intended to apply to a Mortgagee or another purchaser of the Premises pursuant to a foreclosure of a Mortgage or through a deed or instrument of transfer delivered in lieu of such foreclosure, which is not subject to this Section 10.03, provided however, in the event such Mortgagee or other purchaser of the Premises pursuant to a foreclosure of a Mortgage acquires this Lease and becomes a "Tenant" hereunder, this Section 10.03 shall apply to any future attempted Transfer of this Lease or Proposed Transfer Premises.

Section 10.04. Leasehold Mortgages.

(a) Tenant shall have the right to mortgage or pledge its interest in this Lease to one or more Mortgagees which at any time and from time to time during the Term, provided however, that (x) until Final Completion has occurred, all proceeds from any loan secured by Tenant's interest in this Lease shall be used only in connection with the costs of pre-development, development, construction, carry, and operations of the Project and (y) no holder of any Mortgage, nor anyone claiming by, through or under any such Mortgage, shall by virtue thereof, acquire any greater rights hereunder than Tenant has, except the right to cure or remedy Tenant's defaults or become entitled to a New Lease as more fully set forth in this Section 10.04 and such other rights as are expressly granted to Mortgagees hereunder. No Mortgage shall be effective, unless:

(i) at the time of making such Mortgage there is no existing and unremedied Event of Default on the part of Tenant under any of the agreements, terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease on the part of Tenant to be performed; provided however, that if such Event of Default exists, but this Lease has not been terminated and such Event of Default will be cured simultaneously with the granting of such Mortgage or with the proceeds from such Mortgage, Tenant may nevertheless enter into such Mortgage for Tenant's interest in this Lease;

(ii) such Mortgage shall be subject to all the agreements, terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease;

(iii) such Mortgage shall contain in substance the following provisions:

"This instrument is executed upon condition that (unless this condition be released or waived by Landlord under said Lease or its successors in interest by an instrument in writing) no purchaser or transferee of said Lease at any foreclosure sale hereunder, or other transfer authorized by law by reason of a default hereunder where no foreclosure sale is required, shall, as a result of such sale or transfer, acquire any right, title or interest in or to said Lease or the leasehold estate hereby mortgaged or pledged as between as such transferee and said Landlord, unless and until (i) Landlord has been given written notice of such sale or transfer of said Lease and the effective date thereof, and (ii) such purchaser or transferee has delivered to Landlord a duplicate original or certified copy of the instrument of sale or transfer to Landlord.

õThe purchaser or transferee of said Lease shall, effective from and after the effective date of the foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure, assume and agree to perform all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Lease to be observed or performed on the part of Tenant and, that no further or additional mortgage or assignment of the Lease hereby mortgaged may be made except in accordance with the provisions contained in Article 10 of the Lease.

õThis mortgage is not a security interest in or lien on the fee interest in the premises covered by the Lease hereby mortgaged.

õThe mortgagee hereunder waives all right and option to retain and apply the proceeds of any insurance or the proceeds of any condemnation award toward the payment of the sum secured by this mortgage but only to the extent such proceeds are required for and applied to the demolition, repair or restoration of the mortgaged premises in accordance with the provisions of the Lease.

õIn the event of foreclosure, the mortgagee shall not name, in such foreclosure action or otherwise, and in any event shall not disturb the possession or right to possession (except for default) of, any subtenants of Tenant under the Lease) who are not Affiliates of Tenant.

õThis mortgage and all rights of the mortgagee hereunder are, without the necessity for the execution of any further documents, subject to the terms of said Lease and the rights of the landlord thereunder, as said Lease may have been previously modified, amended or renewed with the consent of the mortgagor or its predecessors in interest, or may hereafter be modified, amended or renewed with the consent of the mortgagee. Nevertheless, the holder of this mortgage agrees from time to time upon request and without charge to execute, acknowledge and deliver any instruments reasonably requested by Landlord to evidence the foregoing.õ

(b) Tenant or the Mortgagee shall give to Landlord written notice of the making of any Mortgage (which notice shall contain the name and office address of the Mortgagee) promptly after the execution and delivery of such Mortgage and a duplicate original or certified copy thereof.

(c) Landlord shall give to each Mortgagee, at the address of such Mortgagee set forth in the notice from such Mortgagee or from Tenant, and otherwise in the manner provided by Article 25, a copy of each notice given by Landlord to Tenant hereunder (including any notices of Event(s) of Default under the Lease) at the same time as and whenever any such notice shall thereafter be given by Landlord to Tenant, and no such notice by Landlord shall be deemed to have been duly given to Tenant (and no grace or cure period shall be deemed to have commenced) unless and until a copy thereof shall have been given to each such Mortgagee. Upon receipt of such notice, each Mortgagee shall have the right (but not the obligation) to remedy such Event of Default or cause the same to be remedied, within the following additional time periods (in each instance after the applicable period afforded Tenant for remedying the Event of Default or causing the same to be remedied has expired): (i) a period of ten (10) Business Days more in the case of a monetary Event of Default, and (ii) a period of fifteen (15) Business Days more in the case of a non-monetary Event of Default, or in the case of a non-monetary Event of Default which shall require more than the additional fifteen (15) Business Days to cure using due diligence, then such longer period of time as will be necessary, so long as such Mortgagee shall have commenced to cure (or caused to be commenced such cure) within such additional fifteen (15) Business Day period and continuously prosecutes or causes to be prosecuted the same to completion with reasonable diligence and continuity. Landlord shall accept performance by or on behalf of a Mortgagee of any covenant, condition or agreement on Tenant's part to be performed hereunder with the same force and effect as though performed by Tenant, so long as such performance is made in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease. Landlord shall not object to any temporary entry onto the Premises by or on behalf of Mortgagee to the extent necessary to effect such Mortgagee's cure rights, provided such entry is in compliance with all Applicable Laws. If possession of the Premises or any part thereof is required in order to cure such Event of Default, Mortgagee shall notify Landlord within the applicable period afforded to Mortgagee hereunder.

(d) During any period in which Mortgagee, in good faith and acting with reasonable diligence and continuity, is attempting or in the process of curing (or caused to be commenced such cure) a non-monetary Event of Default within the time periods provided in Section 10.04(c), Landlord will not exercise any remedies to terminate this Lease or dispossess Tenant of possession thereof. At any time prior to the expiration of the additional cure period afforded Mortgagee under Section 10.04(c) to cure (or caused to be cured) the Event of Default, Mortgagee may send Landlord notice of its intention to institute foreclosure proceedings, and thereafter, provided Mortgagee commences such foreclosure proceedings, prosecutes such proceedings with all reasonable diligence and continuity (subject to Unavoidable Delays) and, upon obtaining such possession, commences promptly to cure the Event of Default and prosecutes the same to completion with all reasonable diligence and continuity (subject to Unavoidable Delays), Landlord will not exercise any remedies to terminate this Lease or dispossess Tenant of possession thereof; provided however, that: (i) Mortgagee shall have first delivered to Landlord, in writing, its agreement to cure (or caused to be cured), and (ii) during the period in which Mortgagee is curing (or causing such cure of) such Event of Default (and any foreclosure proceedings are pending), all of the other obligations of Tenant under this Lease are being duly performed (including, without limitation, payment of all Additional Costs and Impositions due hereunder (including further, without limitation, the payment of any Impositions or payments of installments for Impositions are being made to a Depository in accordance with Article 5 above)) within any applicable grace periods. However, at any time after the delivery of the aforementioned agreement, the Mortgagee may notify Landlord, in writing, that it has relinquished possession of the Premises or that it will not institute foreclosure proceedings or, if such proceedings have been commenced, that it has discontinued them, and, in such event, the Mortgagee shall have no further liability under such agreement from and after the date it delivers such notice to Landlord (except for any obligations assumed by the Mortgagee and accruing prior to the date it delivers such notice), and, thereupon, Landlord shall have the unrestricted right to terminate this Lease, dispossess Tenant of the Premises and to take any other action Landlord deems appropriate by reason of any uncured Event of Default by Tenant.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 10.04 to the contrary, a Mortgagee shall not be required to cure any non-monetary Events of Default of Tenant that are not capable of being cured by such Mortgagee, and if any Mortgagee, assignee or transferee shall acquire the Premises pursuant to a foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure, then any such non-monetary Event of Default by Tenant that is not capable of being cured shall no longer be deemed an Event of Default of the acquiring Mortgagee, assignee or transferee of this Lease after such foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure (provided however, that Landlord may continue to pursue any and all remedies at law or in equity against the defaulting Tenant unless Tenant was released of such obligations, provided further, that any such remedies may not involve the disturbance of quiet possession of any Mortgagee, assignee or transferee of the Premises under this Lease or a New Lease).

(f) With respect to any non-monetary Event of Default, so long as a Mortgagee shall be diligently exercising its cure rights under this Section 10.04 with respect thereto within the applicable cure periods set forth above and so long as, if possession of the Premises is required to cure the same, Mortgagee shall be taking the actions required by clause (d) of this Section 10.04, Landlord shall not (i) re-enter the Premises, (ii) serve a termination notice, or (iii) bring a proceeding on account of such default to (A) dispossess Tenant or other occupants of the Premises, (B) re-enter the Premises, or (C) terminate this Lease or the leasehold estate (such rights described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) being herein ~~Landlord's~~ Termination Rights). In addition, with respect to any monetary Event of Default, Landlord shall not exercise any of ~~Landlord's~~ Termination Rights so long as a Mortgagee shall be diligently exercising its cure rights under this Section 10.04 within the time periods set forth above. Upon any Mortgagee ceasing to diligently exercise such rights and undertaking such activities, Landlord may exercise any of ~~Landlord's~~ Termination Rights hereunder. Nothing in the protections to Mortgagees provided in this Lease shall, however, be construed to either (i) extend the Term beyond the stated Fixed Expiration Date provided for in this Lease that would have applied if no Event of Default had occurred or (ii) require such Mortgagee to cure any non-monetary Event of Default by Tenant that is not capable of being cured and as a condition to preserving this Lease or, in the case of a Mortgagee only, to obtaining a New Lease as provided in Section 10.05.

(g) The exercise of any rights or remedies of a Mortgagee under a Mortgage, including the consummation of any foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure, shall not constitute an Event of Default; provided however, that any assignment of this Lease resulting from any such foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure to an entity other than a Mortgagee or an Affiliate of such Mortgagee shall be an Event of Default under this Lease unless such assignment meets the requirements of Section 10.03.

(h) Except as provided in clause (d) of this Section 10.04, no Mortgagee shall become liable under the provisions of this Lease unless and until such time as it becomes, and then only for so long as it remains, the owner of the leasehold estate created hereby and no performance by or on behalf of such Mortgagee of Tenant's obligations hereunder shall cause such Mortgagee to be deemed to be a "mortgagee in possession" unless and until such Mortgagee shall take control or possession of the Premises.

(i) If there is more than one Mortgagee, the rights and obligations afforded by this Section 10.04 to a Mortgagee shall be exercisable only by the party whose collateral interest in the Premises is senior in lien (or which has obtained the consent of any Mortgagees that are senior to such Mortgagee).

(j) In addition to the other rights, notices and cure periods afforded to the holders of any Mortgage, Landlord further agrees that:

(i) without the prior written consent of each holder of a Mortgage, Landlord will neither agree to any modification or amendment of this Lease, nor accept a surrender or cancellation of this Lease;

(ii) Landlord shall consider in good faith any modification to the Lease requested by a Mortgagee or prospective Mortgagee as a condition or term of granting financing to Tenant, provided that the same does not materially increase Landlord's obligations or diminish Landlord's rights and immunities hereunder;

(iii) the holder of the Mortgage most senior in lien priority on this Lease shall have the right to participate in any dispute resolution proceedings under Article 34 hereof;

(iv) the holder of the Mortgage most senior in lien priority on this Lease shall have the right to participate in the adjustments of any insurance claims of the nature set forth in Article 7 and Article 8 hereof and condemnation awards of the nature set forth in Article 9 hereof and to serve as the Depository (subject to any terms, conditions and covenants applicable to Mortgagee(s), as set forth in such Articles); and

(v) at the request of Tenant from time to time, Landlord shall execute and deliver an instrument addressed to the holder of any Mortgage confirming that such holder is a Mortgagee and entitled to the benefit of all provisions contained in the Lease which are expressly stated to be for the benefit of Mortgagees.

Section 10.05. New Lease. If Tenant has mortgaged its interest in this Lease in accordance with its terms, for so long as any such Mortgage is outstanding and of record, prior to the exercise of Landlord's Termination Rights, provided Mortgagee is continuing to exercise (and has not abandoned) its cure rights as provided in Section 10.04, Mortgagee shall have the option to obtain a new lease (a "New Lease") in accordance with the terms of this Section 10.05.

(a) Mortgagee shall send written notice to Landlord in accordance with Article 25 of its exercise of the option to obtain a New Lease at any time during which Mortgagee is exercising its cure rights within the applicable cure periods provided in Section 10.04 above and prior to Landlord exercising Landlord's Termination Rights and Landlord shall enter into a New Lease of the Premises with the Mortgagee or any designee of the Mortgagee (such Mortgagee or such designee, the "New Tenant").

(b) The New Lease shall be effective as of the date of termination of this Lease and shall be for the remainder of the Term and upon all of the same agreements, terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease. Upon the execution of such New Lease, the New Tenant shall pay any and all sums which would at the time of the execution thereof be due under this Lease but for its termination, as aforesaid, and shall otherwise with reasonable diligence commence to remedy any non-monetary Events of Default under this Lease that are of a nature or type that are capable of being cured by a party other than Tenant and shall pay all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable counsel fees, court costs and disbursements incurred by Landlord in connection with such Events of Default and termination, the recovery of possession of said Premises and the preparation, execution and delivery of such New Lease. In the event of a dispute between the parties as to the reasonableness of New Tenant's diligence in remedying non-monetary Events of Default as provided in the preceding sentence, such dispute shall be determined by dispute resolution as provided in Article 34. Landlord shall have no obligation to deliver physical possession of the Premises in connection with the giving of any such New Lease to the extent that Landlord has not previously have recovered possession of same. As between Landlord and such New Tenant, any such New Lease and the leasehold estate thereby created, subject to the same conditions contained in this Lease, shall continue to maintain the same priority as this Lease with regard to any Mortgage or any other lien, charge or encumbrance whether or not the same shall then be in existence.

(c) If there is more than one Mortgagee, Landlord shall enter into a New Lease with the Mortgagee whose Mortgage is senior in lien (or which has obtained the consent of any Mortgagees that are senior to such Mortgagee) as the Mortgagee entitled to the rights afforded by this Section 10.05.

(d) Any rejection of this Lease by any trustee of Tenant in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement or similar proceeding which would otherwise cause this Lease to terminate, shall, without any action or consent by Landlord, Tenant or any Mortgagee, effect the transfer of Tenant's interest hereunder to the senior Mortgagee or its nominee or designee. Such Mortgagee may reject the transfer of this Lease upon such transfer upon giving notice thereof to Landlord no later than sixty (60) days after notice from Landlord of such transfer. Such Mortgagee shall thereupon have no further obligations hereunder. Alternatively, the senior Mortgagee may request a New Lease in accordance with the provisions of this Section 10.05.

(e) Except as expressly provided in Section 10.04(f) regarding Mortgagee not having to cure any non-monetary Event of Default by Tenant that is not capable of being cured, nothing in this Section 10.05 releases Tenant from any of its obligations under this Lease which have not been discharged or fully performed by Tenant or Mortgagee.

INITIAL CONSTRUCTION OF THE PROJECT; RESTORATION; CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

Section 11.01. Initial Construction Work. Tenant shall cause the Project to be developed to as described in the Plans and Specifications listed on Exhibit E. Tenant shall cause Substantial Completion of the Project on or before the Final Completion Date. Until Substantial Completion of the Project, Tenant shall always prosecute construction of the Project (and, for purposes of this clause, "prosecute construction of the Project" shall include actions necessary to obtain construction financing) with reasonable diligence and continuity (subject to Unavoidable Delays) in accordance with the then applicable Project Schedule. Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of Tenant's Project Schedule, but Tenant is entitled to modify such Project Schedule from time to time as Tenant deems appropriate (except that Tenant may not modify the Project Schedule in a manner that would reflect Substantial Completion of the Project occurring after the Final Completion Date). Tenant shall promptly provide a copy of any revised Project Schedule to Landlord.

Section 11.02. Restoration or Construction Work in Excess of Ten Percent (10%) of the Replacement Value or That Would Affect the Exterior of any Building. If: (a) the estimated cost (determined as provided in Section 8.04(b) hereof) of any Restoration of the Initial Construction Work to be performed in accordance with the provisions of this Lease, other than any interior alteration is greater than, (i) Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) (subject to adjustment as provided in Section 8.05(a)), or (ii) ten percent (10%) of the Replacement Value, either individually or in the aggregate with other Construction Work which is in any calendar year, or (b) the Construction Work involves work that would materially change the exterior of any Building (but not including painting of the exterior of a Building) or (c) the Construction Work would materially change the height, bulk or setback of any Building from the height, bulk or setback of the Building existing immediately before the commencement of the Construction Work; then in any such case, Tenant shall obtain the consent of Landlord for such Construction Work, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, which request shall be accompanied by sufficient information to permit Landlord to fairly evaluate the request. Following any request by Tenant to Landlord to approve any proposed modifications to the Construction Work as set forth herein, Landlord shall, subject to the terms set forth hereinabove in this Section, review the information submitted to Landlord and notify Tenant in writing of Landlord's approval or disapproval of such submission within twenty (20) Business Days after its receipt of the same from Tenant. If Landlord disapproves any such modifications, Landlord's notice to Tenant shall set forth in reasonable detail the reasons for such disapproval. If Landlord fails to notify Tenant in writing of either its approval or disapproval of any such submission within twenty (20) Business Days after its receipt of the same from Tenant, then such submission shall be deemed approved by Landlord (but such deemed approval shall not extend to any agency, regulator or authority of Landlord's right to review and approve any proposed modifications to the Construction Work in its governmental capacity, if applicable). Landlord shall bear the costs for the reasonable fees and expenses of any registered architect or licensed professional engineer selected by Landlord to review the information provided by Tenant to Landlord in connection with such Construction Work and to inspect the Construction Work on behalf of Landlord or may request to rely on the inspecting architects or engineers selected by the Mortgagee for such purposes.

Section 11.03. Standards of Construction and Maintenance during Lease Term. Throughout the term of this Lease, Tenant shall be obligated to construct and maintain the Project and make all appropriate capital replacement (including without limitation, all Capital Improvements) in a good and workmanlike manner that is consistent with the construction and maintenance standards for the Initial Construction Work of the Project.

Section 11.04. Modification of Approved Plans and Specifications. Prior to the Commencement Date, Tenant has submitted and Landlord has approved the Plans and Specifications for the Project. If Tenant desires to modify the Plans and Specifications after they have been approved by Landlord in any way which will materially affect any aspect of the exterior of any Building or result in a change in the height, bulk or setback of any Building, Tenant shall submit the proposed modifications to Landlord. Landlord shall review the proposed changes to determine whether they materially conform to the Plans and Specifications originally approved by Landlord. A modification will be "material" or will "materially affect" the exterior of the Building if the costs associated with such modification exceed: (a) One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) on an occurrence basis; or (b) Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) in the aggregate in any twelve (12) month period, and in such event, Landlord shall have the review and approval rights set forth herein for each modification over the Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) aggregate that costs more than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) in any instance. The initial review by Landlord shall be carried out within twenty (20) Business Days of the date of submission of the proposed modifications to the Plans and Specifications. If Landlord determines that they do so conform, Landlord shall so notify Tenant. If Landlord reasonably determines that the Plans and Specifications, as so revised, do not materially conform to the Plans and Specifications originally approved by Landlord, Landlord shall so notify Tenant, specifying in what respects they do not so conform. Tenant shall either (i) withdraw the proposed modifications, in which case construction of the Project shall proceed on the basis of the Plans and Specifications previously approved by Landlord, or (ii) revise the proposed modifications to so conform and resubmit them to Landlord for review. Each review by Landlord after the initial review shall be carried out within ten (10) Business Days of the date of submission of the proposed modifications to the Plans and Specifications. If Landlord has not notified Tenant of its determination within the time period for Landlord's review as outlined above, Landlord shall be deemed to have determined that they materially conform to the Plans and Specifications previously approved by Landlord. Landlord and Tenant agree that the ten (10) Business Day review period outlined above shall only apply to modifications previously reviewed and commented on by Landlord. To the extent Tenant submits new or additional modifications outside the scope of Tenant's original submission to Landlord or in addition to any changes requested by Landlord as a result of its initial review, Landlord shall have twenty (20) Business Days to review and comment on such new or additional modifications thereto. It is understood and agreed that any consent or approval by Landlord to a modification under this Section 11.04 is a consent or approval by Landlord solely in its proprietary capacity and not in its governmental or regulatory capacity and no such approval hereunder shall in any manner be deemed to affect, limit or obligate the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax County in its governmental or regulatory capacity or the County of Fairfax, Virginia, or its agencies, departments or divisions (including without limitation the Department of Planning and Zoning) thereof with respect to any actions the foregoing may require or be requested to undertake that pertain in any manner to, any approval requests, inspections or other matters involving Governmental Authorities.

Section 11.05. Payment for Construction Work; Contested Matters. Tenant shall make full and timely payment or shall cause full and timely payment to be made to all contractors, subcontractors, materialmen, engineers, architects or other Persons who have rendered or furnished services or materials for any Construction Work (including the Initial Construction Work) or contest or discharge such matters in accordance with Section 15.02 below, to the extent such matters result in a lien or encumbrance against the Project.

Section 11.06. Landlord's Right to Use Field Personnel. Landlord reserves the right to maintain, at its sole cost and expense, its field personnel at the Premises to observe Tenant's construction methods and techniques and Landlord shall be entitled to have appropriate members of its field personnel or other designees attend Tenant's job and safety meetings. Such field personnel shall conduct themselves in such a manner so as not to interfere with Tenant's activities at the Premises and shall comply with any and all job site rules and regulations imposed by Tenant and its contractors on personnel on the job site. No such observation or attendance by Landlord's personnel or designees shall impose upon Landlord responsibility for any failure by Tenant to observe appropriate safety practices in connection with such construction, or constitute an acceptance of any work which does not comply in all respects with the provisions of this Lease.

Section 11.07. Commencement and Completion of all Construction Work. All Construction Work, once commenced, shall be completed with reasonable promptness (subject to Unavoidable Delays), in a good and workmanlike manner and, with respect to Construction Work for which this Lease requires Tenant to prepare plans and specifications, in substantial accordance with such plans and specifications, and all Applicable Laws.

Section 11.08. Supervision of Architect. All: (a) Initial Construction Work; and (b) Construction Work, the estimated cost of which (determined as provided in Section 8.04(b) hereof) is ten percent (10%) of the Replacement Value or more either individually or in the aggregate in any calendar year or (c) that involves work that would materially change the exterior of any Building or the height, bulk or setback of any Building shall be carried out under the supervision of an Architect if the work in question is of a type that is typically carried out under such supervision.

Section 11.09. Capital Improvements. From and after Final Completion, Tenant shall not replace or materially alter the Project, or any part thereof (except as provided to the contrary with respect to Fixtures in Article 13), or make any addition thereto, whether voluntarily or in connection with repairs required by this Lease (collectively, "Capital Improvements"), unless Tenant shall comply with the following requirements and, if applicable, with the additional requirements set forth in Section 11.10:

(a) No Capital Improvements shall be undertaken, as applicable, until Tenant shall have procured from all Governmental Authorities and paid for all permits, consents, certificates and approvals for the proposed Capital Improvements which are required to be obtained prior to the commencement of the proposed Capital Improvements (collectively, Improvement Approvals). Landlord shall not unreasonably refuse to join or otherwise cooperate in the application for any such Improvement Approvals, provided such application is made without cost, expense or liability (contingent or otherwise) to Landlord. True copies of all such Improvement Approvals shall be delivered by Tenant to Landlord prior to commencement of the proposed Capital Improvements.

(b) The Premises after completion of such Capital Improvements, shall have a value at least equal to the value of the Premises immediately before construction of such Capital Improvements. In addition, the Project shall at all times remain in substantial conformity with the original Plans and Specifications therefor (except to the extent specifically consented to by Landlord, in its sole but reasonable discretion).

(c) All Capital Improvements shall be made with reasonable diligence and continuity (subject to Unavoidable Delays) and in a good and workmanlike manner and in compliance with (i) all Improvement Approvals, (ii) if required pursuant to Section 11.10(a) or (b), in substantial accordance with the plans and specifications for such Capital Improvements as approved by Landlord, (iii) all Applicable Laws.

(d) No construction of any Capital Improvement shall be commenced until Tenant shall have delivered to Landlord certificate of insurance and copies of the declaration page(s) for the insurance required by Exhibit D. Such insurance policies shall comply with the terms of Section 7.02 above.

Section 11.10. Submissions to Landlord for Capital Improvements. If the estimated cost of any proposed Capital Improvements exceed Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) (as such amount shall be increased as provided in Section 8.05(a)), either individually or in the aggregate with other Capital Improvements which are a related portion of a program or project of Capital Improvements constructed in any twelve (12) month period during the Term, Tenant shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) Intentionally omitted.

(b) Tenant shall furnish to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to commencement of the proposed Capital Improvements, complete plans and specifications for the Capital Improvements, prepared by an Architect, for Landlord's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld provided such Capital Improvements shall be in substantial conformity with the original Plans and Specifications (except to the extent specifically consented to by Landlord in its sole, but reasonable discretion or as otherwise expressly provided in Article 8 above), and the Project shall be in substantial conformity with applicable requirements of this Lease; and

(c) If the Capital Improvements are of a type for which as-built plans are typically prepared, then within ninety (90) days after completion of any Capital

Improvements, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a complete set of ãas-builtö plans (which may be field marked copies of the construction plans) for such Capital Improvements, together with a permanent Certificate of Occupancy therefor issued by County of Fairfax, Virginia, to the extent a modification thereof was required.

The provisions of this Section 11.10 apply to Restoration or construction of additional Capital Improvements only and are not applicable for the Initial Construction Work.

Section 11.11. Completion of Construction Work. Upon Substantial Completion of the Project, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with (a) a certification of the Architect (certified to Landlord) that it has examined the applicable plans and specifications (that shall include the Plans and Specifications in the case of Initial Construction Work or a Restoration of the Project) and that, in its best professional judgment, after diligent inquiry, to its best knowledge and belief, the Construction Work has been substantially completed in accordance with the plans and specifications applicable thereto and, as constructed, the Project complies with all applicable Requirements, (b) if required, a copy or copies of the temporary or permanent certificate(s) of occupancy for the Project issued by the Fairfax County Department of Public Works and Environmental Services (or such other appropriate Governmental Authority), and (c) with respect to the Initial Construction Work (or a Restoration) of the Project, within ninety (90) days of Substantial Completion, a complete set of ãas builtö plans and a survey showing the Project. Landlord shall have an unrestricted non-exclusive license to use such ãas builtö plans and survey for any purpose without paying any additional cost or compensation therefor, which license shall be subject to the rights of the parties preparing such plans and survey under copyright and other applicable laws.

Section 11.12. Construction Agreements. Throughout the Term, all Construction Agreements shall include the following provisions:

(a) [õContractorö]/[õSubcontractorö]/Materialmanö hereby agrees that Landlord shall not be liable in any manner for payment or otherwise to [õcontractorö]/[õsubcontractorö]/[õmaterialmanö] in connection with the purchase of any building materials for the Project and Landlord shall have no obligation to pay any compensation to [õcontractorö]/[õsubcontractorö]/[õmaterialmanö] by reason of such materials becoming incorporated into the Project.

(b) [õContractorö]/[õSubcontractorö]/ [õMaterialmanö] hereby agrees that notwithstanding that [õcontractorö]/ [õsubcontractorö]/[õmaterialmanö] performed work at the Premises (as such term is defined in the Lease) or any part thereof; Landlord shall not be liable in any manner for payment or otherwise to [õcontractorö]/[õsubcontractorö]/[õmaterialmanö] in connection with the work performed at the Premises.

(c) Landlord shall be a third party beneficiary of all guarantees and warranties of [õcontractorö]/[õsubcontractorö]/[õmaterialmanö] hereunder and such guarantees and warranties shall be enforceable against [õcontractorö]/[õsubcontractorö]/[õMaterialmanö] by said Landlord.

(d) Landlord is not a party to this [øagreementø] [øcontractø] nor will Landlord in any way be responsible to any party for any and or all claims of any nature whatsoever arising or which may arise from such [øcontractø] [øagreementø].øø

Section 11.13. Demolition of the Project. Except as hereinafter provided, Tenant shall not demolish the Project during the Term. If the Project is substantially destroyed as a result of a fire or other casualty and it is necessary in connection with a Restoration to demolish the remainder of the Project, Tenant shall have the right, subject to compliance with the terms of Article 8 and Article 11, to demolish the remainder of the Project.

Section 11.14. Materials Incorporated in Project. The materials to be incorporated in the Project at any time during the Term shall, upon purchase of same and at all times thereafter during the Term, constitute the property of Tenant, and upon construction of the Project or the incorporation of such materials therein, title thereto shall vest in Tenant. Nothing in this Section shall limit the Landlordø vesting of all right, title, and interest in such materials located on the Premises at the expiration or earlier termination of the Term.

Section 11.15. Landlord Approval of Financing of Construction Work. Prior to Commencement of Construction (or commencement of a Restoration that is subject to Section 8.05(a)), Tenant shall provide Landlord with a detailed financing plan for the Construction Work to be completed and any and all other costs and expenses which may be necessary to achieve Final Completion (the øFinancing Planø). The Financing Plan shall be subject to the prior written approval of Landlord (including, without limitation, Tenantø proposed Mortgagee and any member or investor of Tenant providing equity funding as part of Tenantø Financing Plan), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed so long as the Financing Plan is consistent with the Construction Work set forth in the Plans and Specifications (or Restoration Plans and Specifications, if applicable) approved by Landlord in accordance with the terms of this Lease. To the extent that Tenant determines that any modifications to the Financing Plan for the Project are necessary after such Financing Plan has been approved by Landlord, Tenant shall make such modifications to such Financing Plan and submit the revised Financing Plan to Landlord for informational purposes, provided however, that if Section 11.04 allows for Landlordø right to approve changes to the Plans and Specifications thereunder, Landlord shall also have the right to approve modifications to the Financing Plan under this Section 11.15. Landlord will review and approve the Financing Plan in writing, or disapprove such Financing Plan, provided Landlord sends with any notice of disapproval sufficient details and explanation for the reason of such disapproval and any requested changes to the modifications of such Financing Plan necessary to obtain Landlordø approval, within fifteen (15) business days after receipt of the proposed Financing Plan. If Landlord fails to notify Tenant in writing of either its approval or disapproval of the proposed modifications to such Financing Plan within fifteen (15) Business Days after its receipt of the same from Tenant, then such proposed modifications to such Financing Plan shall be deemed approved by Landlord. As used in the preceding two sentences, øFinancing Planø means the initial Financing Plan or any modifications of the Financing Plan which require Landlordø approval hereunder.

REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE; CAPITAL RESERVE; PARKING

Section 12.01. Repairs. Tenant shall take good care of the Premises, including, without limitation, the Project, roofs, foundations and appurtenances thereto, water, sewer and gas connections, pipes and mains which are located on or service the Premises and all Fixtures, and shall put, keep and maintain the Project in good and safe order and condition in a manner that is consistent with the maintenance of other comparable market rate apartment projects in Fairfax County, Virginia, and make all repairs therein and thereon, interior and exterior, structural and nonstructural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, necessary or appropriate to keep the same in good and safe order and condition in a good and workmanlike manner that is consistent with the construction and maintenance standards for the Initial Construction Work of the Project, and whether or not necessitated by wear, tear, obsolescence or defects, latent or otherwise, provided however that Tenant's obligations with respect to Restoration resulting from a casualty or condemnation shall be as provided in Article 8 and Article 9 hereof. Tenant shall not commit or suffer, and shall use all reasonable precaution to prevent, waste, damage or injury to the Premises or the Project. When used in this Section 12.01, the term "repairs" shall include all necessary replacements, alterations and additions. All repairs made by Tenant shall be at least equal in quality and class to the original work and shall be made in compliance with all Applicable Laws.

Section 12.02. Capital Reserve. Commencing upon Substantial Completion of the Project, Tenant shall, on the first day of each month during the Term, make monthly deposits to a capital reserve fund (the "Maintenance Capital Reserve") in an amount equal to $300.00/Residential Unit per annum, escalating each year by the increase in the Consumer Price Index for the year in question.

(a) Tenant shall utilize the funds in the Maintenance Capital Reserve to cover the costs of repair and maintenance of the Project, including, without limitation, Capital Improvements.

(b) Depository shall hold the monies deposited into the Maintenance Capital Reserve in an interest bearing account for the purpose of paying (or reimbursing Tenant for) the maintenance and repair charges of the Project pursuant to a depository agreement reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and Tenant.

(c) Any interest paid on monies deposited with the Depository pursuant to this Section 12.02 shall be added to the Maintenance Capital Reserve.

(d) After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and subject to any rights of a Mortgagee, Landlord, at Landlord's option, may withdraw any monies from the Maintenance Capital Reserve for the purpose of performing maintenance, repairs or capital improvements for the Project, as Landlord may reasonably determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 12.02(d) will not apply to the extent that Landlord's rights hereunder would violate or conflict with a Mortgagee's rights to any Capital Maintenance Reserve for the Project.

(e) Landlord shall not be liable for any delay in investing or reinvesting monies deposited with the Depository pursuant to Section 12.02 or for any loss incurred by reason of any such investments, except for any willful misconduct or negligence of Landlord.

Section 12.03. Maintenance Capital Reserve in the Event of a Transfer. In the event of a sale or transfer by either party of its interest in the Premises, such party shall transfer to the person who owns or acquires such interest in the Premises or is the transferee of such party's interest under this Lease, all of such party's rights with respect to the Maintenance Capital Reserve if it is then held by the Depository, if applicable, subject to the provisions thereof. Upon such transfer, the transferor shall be deemed to be released and relieved from all liability with respect to such deposited monies and the non-transferring party shall look solely to the transferee with respect thereto, and the provisions hereof shall apply to each successive transfer of such party's rights with respect to such deposits.

Section 12.04. Mortgagee and Reserves. Notwithstanding anything in Section 12.02 and Section 12.03 to the contrary, in the event that a Mortgagee (provided such Mortgagee be an Institutional Lender) shall require Tenant to deposit funds for maintaining and replacing Capital Improvements, any amount so deposited by Tenant with such Mortgagee shall be credited against the amount, if any, which Tenant would otherwise be required to deposit in the Capital Maintenance Reserve.

Section 12.05. Parking. Tenant hereby covenants and agrees that during the Term it shall provide parking for the Premises in accordance with all Applicable Laws.

Section 12.06. No Obligation on Landlord. Landlord shall not be required to furnish any services, utilities or facilities whatsoever to the Premises, nor shall Landlord have any duty or obligation to make any alteration, change, improvement, replacement, Restoration or repair to, nor to demolish, any Project. Tenant assumes the full and sole responsibility for the condition, operation, repair, alteration, improvement, replacement, maintenance and management of the Premises.

ARTICLE 13

Section 13.02. Maintenance, Repair and Replacement. Tenant shall keep all Fixtures in good order and shall maintain, repair and replace the same when necessary with items at least equal in utility to the Fixtures being replaced, provided however, that Tenant will not be required to maintain, repair and replace any Fixtures which performed a function which has become obsolete or otherwise is no longer necessary or desirable in connection with the use or operation of the Premises, unless such failure to replace would reduce the value of the Premises or would result in a reduced level of maintenance of the Premises, in which case Tenant shall be required to install such Fixtures as may be necessary to prevent such reduction in the value of the Premises or in the level of maintenance.

REQUIREMENTS OF PUBLIC AUTHORITIES AND OF INSURANCE UNDERWRITERS AND POLICIES;

Section 14.01. Compliance with Applicable Laws. Tenant promptly shall comply with any and all applicable present and future laws, rules, orders, ordinances, regulations, statutes, requirements, proffers, permits, consents, certificates, approvals, codes and executive orders without regard to the nature or cost of the work required to be done, extraordinary, as well as ordinary, of all Governmental Authorities now existing or hereafter created, and of any and all of their departments and bureaus affecting or relating to Tenant or the Premises (collectively, Applicable Laws), including without limitation, requiring the removal of any encroachment, or affecting the construction, maintenance, use, operation, management or occupancy of the Premises, whether or not the same involve or require any structural changes or additions in or to the Premises, without regard to whether or not such changes or additions are required on account of any particular use to which the Premises, or any part thereof, may be put, and without regard to the fact that Tenant is not the fee owner of the Premises. Tenant also shall comply with any and all provisions and requirements of any casualty, liability or other insurance policy required to be carried by Tenant under the provisions of this Lease.

Section 14.02. Right to Contest. Tenant, at its expense, after notice to Landlord, may contest, by appropriate proceedings prosecuted diligently and in good faith, the validity or applicability of any Applicable Laws, provided that: (a) Landlord shall not be subject to civil or criminal penalty or to prosecution for a crime, nor shall the Premises or any part thereof be subject to being condemned or vacated, by reason of non-compliance or otherwise by reason of such contest; (b) if an adverse decision in such proceeding or the failure to pay any judgment resulting from such adverse decision could result in the imposition of any lien against the Premises, then before the commencement of such contest, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord the bond of a surety company reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, or other deposit or security in each case in form, substance and amount reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, and shall indemnify Landlord against the cost of such compliance and liability resulting from or incurred in connection with such contest or non-compliance (including the costs and expenses in connection with such contest; (c) Tenant shall keep Landlord regularly advised as to the status of such proceedings; (d) such contest shall be prosecuted with diligence and in good faith to final adjudication, settlement, compliance or other disposition of the Applicable Laws so contested; (e) such contest, and any disposition thereof (including, without limitation, the cost of complying therewith and paying all interest, penalties, fines, liabilities, fees and expenses in connection therewith), shall be at the sole cost of and shall be paid by Tenant; (1) promptly after disposition of the contest, Tenant shall comply with such Applicable Laws to the extent determined by such contest; and (f) notwithstanding any bond, deposit or other security furnished to Landlord, Tenant shall comply with any Applicable Laws in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Lease if the Premises, or part thereof, shall be in danger of being forfeited or if Landlord is in danger of being subject to criminal liability or penalty, or civil liability, in connection with such contest. Landlord shall be deemed subject to prosecution for a crime if Landlord or any of its respective officers, directors, partners, shareholders, agents or employees is charged with a crime of any kind whatever unless such charge is withdrawn ten (10) days before such party is required to plead or answer thereto.

Section 14.03. Environmental Requirements. Tenant shall not undertake, or, to the extent within its reasonable control, permit or suffer any Environmental Activity other than (i) in compliance with all Applicable Laws and all of the terms and conditions of all insurance policies covering, related to or applicable to the Premises, and (ii) in such a manner as shall keep the Premises free from any lien imposed in respect of or as a consequence of such Environmental Activity. Tenant shall act in a commercially reasonable manner to ensure that any Environmental Activity undertaken or permitted at the Premises by Tenant, its agents or representatives, is undertaken in a manner as to provide prudent safeguards against potential risks to human health or the environment or to the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord within twenty-four (24) hours (or the next Business Day if such twenty-four (24) hour period includes a day that is not a Business Day) of any known material release of Hazardous Materials from or at the Premises. Landlord shall have the right, upon reasonable advanced notice and in cooperation with the Tenant, from time to time and at Landlord's expense to conduct an environmental audit of the Premises during regular business hours, and Tenant shall reasonably cooperate in the conduct of such environmental audit. Landlord shall provide a copy of any such audit to Tenant. Landlord shall use its reasonable efforts to minimize interference with Tenant's and any subtenant's use and occupancy of the Premises in performing such environmental audit, and shall repair any damage to the Premises caused by the same, except that Landlord shall have no such repair obligation to the extent the damage was due to any Environmental Activity. If Tenant shall breach the covenants provided in this Section, then in addition to any other rights and remedies which may be available to Landlord under this Lease or otherwise at law or in equity, Landlord may require Tenant to take all actions, or to reimburse Landlord for the costs of any and all actions taken by Landlord, as are necessary or reasonably appropriate to cure such breach. Tenant shall not be responsible for and shall have no liability in connection with any Environmental Activity undertaken or permitted by Landlord, its agents, employees, representatives, licensees, or invitees. For purposes of this Section, "Environmental Activity" means any storage, installation, existence, release, threatened release, discharge, generation, abatement, removal, disposal, handling or transportation from, under, into or on the Premises of (A) any substance, product, waste or other material of any nature whatsoever that is listed, regulated or addressed pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. § 9601, et seq., the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. § 5101, et seq., the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. § 6901, et seq., the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq., the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. § 1251, et seq., the Emergency Planning and Community Right of Know Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. § 11001, et seq., and the Virginia State Water Control Law, Va. Section 15.01. Creation of Liens. Subject to the provisions of Section 15.02 hereof, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, Tenant shall not create or permit to be created any lien, encumbrance or charge upon the Premises or any part thereof, the income therefrom or any assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord, and Tenant shall not suffer any other matter or thing whereby the estate, right and interest of Landlord in the Premises or any part thereof might be impaired.

Section 15.02. Discharge of Liens. If any mechanic's, laborer's or materialman's lien (other than a lien arising out of any work performed by Landlord) at any time shall be filed in violation of the obligations of Tenant pursuant to Section 15.01 against the Premises or any part thereof or the Project or any part thereof, or, if any public improvement lien created or permitted to be created by Tenant shall be filed against any assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord, Tenant, within forty-five (45) days after notice of the filing thereof shall cause the same to be discharged of record by payment, deposit, bond, order of a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise. Any amount so paid by Landlord, including all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith, together with interest thereon at the Involuntary Rate, from the respective dates of Landlord's making of the payment or incurring of the costs and expenses, shall constitute Additional Costs and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within ten (10) days after demand. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 15.02, Tenant shall not be required to discharge (and Landlord shall not pay or discharge) any such lien if Tenant is in good faith contesting the same and has furnished a cash deposit or a security bond or other such security reasonably satisfactory to Landlord in an amount sufficient to pay such lien with interest and penalties.

Section 15.03. No Authority to Contract in Name of Landlord. Nothing in this Lease shall be deemed or construed in any way as constituting the consent or request of Landlord, express or implied, by inference or otherwise, to any contractor, subcontractor, laborer or materialman for the performance of any labor or the furnishing of any materials for any specific improvement, alteration to or repair of the Premises or any part thereof, nor as giving Tenant any right, power or authority to contract for or permit the rendering of any services or the furnishing of materials that would give rise to the filing of any lien against Landlord's interest in the Premises or any part thereof, or any assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord. Notice is hereby given that Landlord shall not be liable for any work performed or to be performed at the Premises for Tenant or any Residential Tenant or other subtenant (or any sub-subtenants of either), for any materials furnished or to be furnished at the Premises for any of the foregoing, and that no mechanic's or other lien for such work or materials shall attach to or affect the estate or interest of Landlord in and to the Premises or any part thereof or any assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord. Tenant shall have no power to do any act or make any contract which may create or be the foundation for any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance upon the estate or assets of, or funds appropriated to, Landlord or of any interest of Landlord in the Premises.

(j) any contest by Tenant permitted pursuant to the provisions of this Lease, including, without limitation, Articles 4 and 14 hereof.

Section 19.02. Not Affected by Insurance. The obligations of Tenant under this Article 19 shall not be affected in any way by the absence in any case of covering insurance or by the failure or refusal of any insurance carrier to perform any obligation on its part under insurance policies affecting the Premises; provided however, Tenant shall be relieved of its aforesaid obligation of indemnity to the extent of the amount actually recovered from one or more of the insurance carriers of either Tenant or Indemnitee, and (a) paid to Indemnitee, or (b) paid for Indemnitee's benefit in reduction of any such liability, penalties, damage, expense, or charges imposed upon Indemnitee.

Section 19.03. Notice and Defense Process. If any claim, action or proceeding is made or brought against any of the Indemnitees by reason of any event for which Tenant has agreed to indemnify the Indemnitees in Section 19.01, then, upon demand by Landlord, Tenant shall resist or defend such claim, action or proceeding (in such Indemnitee's name, if necessary) by the attorneys for Tenant's insurance carrier (if such claim, action or proceeding is covered by insurance maintained by Tenant) or (in all other instances) by such attorneys as Tenant shall select and Landlord shall approve, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The foregoing notwithstanding, and except with respect to personal injury or other liability claims within the coverage limits afforded by Tenant's liability insurance and being defended by attorneys for, or approved by, Tenant's insurance carrier, Landlord may, following such consultation with Tenant as to the necessity of such engagement and the choice of such attorneys as is reasonable under the circumstances, engage its own attorneys to defend or to assist in its defense of such claim, action or proceeding and Tenant shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of such attorneys. Tenant shall control the settlement of any such claim, action, or proceeding. Landlord's consent to any such settlement shall not be required if such settlement provides solely for the payment of money and does not impose any other liability on Landlord; otherwise Landlord's consent to a proposed settlement will be required, provided such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 19.04. Survival. The provisions of this Article 19 shall survive the Expiration Date with respect to actions or the failure to take any actions or any other matter arising prior to the Expiration Date.

ARTICLE 20

LANDLORD'S RIGHT OF INSPECTION; RIGHT TO PERFORM TENANT'S COVENANTS.

Section 20.01. Landlord Right of Inspection. Tenant shall permit Landlord and its agents or representatives to enter the Premises at all reasonable times and upon reasonable notice, subject to the rights of Residential Tenants and other permitted subtenants under this Lease, if any (and except in cases of emergency) for the purpose of (a) inspecting the same, (b) determining whether or not Tenant is in compliance with its obligations hereunder, and (c) making any necessary repairs to the premises and performing any work therein that may be necessary by reason of Tenant's failure to make any such repairs or perform any such work, provided that, except in any emergency, Landlord shall have given Tenant notice specifying such repairs or work and Tenant shall have failed to make such repairs or to do such work within thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice (subject to Unavoidable Delays), or if such repairs or such work cannot reasonably be completed during such thirty (30) day period, to have commenced and be diligently pursuing the same.

Section 20.02. Landlord Right to Cure. If Tenant at any time shall be in an Event of Default, after notice thereof and after applicable grace periods, if any, provided under this Lease for Tenant or a Mortgagee, respectively, to cure or commence to cure same, Landlord, without waiving or releasing Tenant from any obligation of Tenant contained in this Lease, may (but shall be under no obligation to) perform such obligation on Tenant's behalf. If Tenant disputes a claim by Landlord that Tenant is failing to comply with the terms of this Lease regarding the maintenance and repair of the Premises the parties shall resolve such dispute resolution pursuant to Article 34 below before Tenant is obligated to perform the disputed obligations.

Section 20.03. Reimbursement of Landlord. All reasonable sums paid by Landlord and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with its performance of any obligation pursuant to Section 20.02, together with interest thereon at the Involuntary Rate from the respective dates of Landlord's making of each such payment or incurring of each such sum, cost, expense, charge, payment or deposit until the date of actual repayment to Landlord, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within ten (10) Business Days after Landlord shall have submitted to Tenant a statement, in reasonable detail, substantiating the amount demanded by Landlord. Any payment or performance by Landlord pursuant to Section 20.02 shall not be nor be deemed to be a waiver or release of breach or Event of Default of Tenant with respect thereto or of the right of Landlord to terminate this Lease, institute summary proceedings or take such other action as may be permissible hereunder if an Event of Default by Tenant shall have occurred. Landlord shall not be limited in the proof of any damages which Landlord may claim against Tenant arising out of or by reason of Tenant's failure to provide and keep insurance in force as aforesaid to the amount of the insurance premium or premiums not paid, but Landlord also shall be entitled to recover, as damages for such breach, the uninsured amount of any loss and damage and the reasonable costs and expenses of suit, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements, suffered or incurred by reason of an uninsured damage to or destruction of the Premises. If as a result of such dispute resolution it is determined that Tenant was complying with the terms of this Lease regarding the maintenance and repair of the Premises, then Landlord shall not be entitled to reimbursement for any work they may have performed.

Section 20.04. No Duty on Landlord. Nothing in this Article 20 or elsewhere in this Lease shall imply any duty upon the part of Landlord to do any work required to be performed by Tenant hereunder and performance of any such work by Landlord shall not constitute a waiver of Tenant's default in failing to perform the same. Landlord, during the progress of any such work, may keep and store at the Premises all necessary materials, tools, supplies and equipment so long as such storage does not materially interfere with the operation of the Premises or the use of any Residential Units. To the extent that Landlord undertakes such work or repairs, such work or repairs shall be commenced and completed in a good and workmanlike manner, and with reasonable diligence, subject to Unavoidable Delays.

[RESERVED]

ARTICLE 22

NO ABATEMENT OF BASE RENT OR ADDITIONAL COSTS

Except as may be otherwise expressly provided herein, there shall be no abatement, offset, diminution or reduction of Base Rent or Additional Costs payable by Tenant hereunder or of the other obligations of Tenant hereunder under any circumstances.

ARTICLE 23

NO UNLAWFUL OCCUPANCY

Section 23.01. No Unlawful Use. Tenant shall not use or occupy, nor, to the extent within its reasonable control, permit or suffer the Premises or any part thereof to be used or occupied for any unlawful, illegal or extra hazardous business, use or purpose, or in such manner as to constitute a nuisance of any kind (public or private) or that is offensive by reason of odors, fumes, dust, smoke, noise or other pollution, or for any purpose or in any way in violation of the Certificate of Occupancy for the Premises or the Applicable Laws or which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force on the Premises. Tenant shall take, promptly upon the discovery of any such unpermitted, unlawful, illegal or extra hazardous use, such actions as Tenant deems necessary to address such unpermitted, unlawful, illegal or extra hazardous use. If for any reason Tenant shall fail to take such actions, and such failure shall continue for thirty (30) days after notice from Landlord to Tenant specifying such failure, Landlord is hereby irrevocably authorized to take all such actions in Tenant's name and on Tenant's behalf, Tenant hereby appointing Landlord as Tenant's attorney-in-fact coupled with an interest for all such purposes. If Tenant disputes Landlord's claim as to the existence of such unpermitted, unlawful, illegal or extra hazardous use or Tenant's actions with respect thereto, then the parties shall resolve such dispute pursuant to the provisions of Article 34 and the procedures set forth in Section 20.02, Section 20.03 and Section 20.04 following such dispute regarding Landlord's right to cure and right to reimbursement shall apply hereunder.

Section 23.02. No Adverse Possession. Tenant shall not knowingly suffer or permit the Premises or any portion thereof to be used by the public in such manner as might reasonably tend to impair title to the Premises or any portion thereof, or in such manner as might reasonably make possible a claim or claims of adverse usage or adverse possession by the public, as such, or of implied dedication of the Premises or any portion thereof.

ARTICLE 24

EVENTS OF DEFAULT; CONDITIONAL LIMITATIONS, REMEDIES, ETC.

Section 24.01. Events of Default. Each of the following events shall be an Event of Default hereunder:

(h) if a levy under execution or attachment (other than a Mortgage) shall be made against the Premises and such execution or attachment shall not be vacated or removed by court order, bonding, insured over, or otherwise within a period of thirty (30) days; and

(i) if, after notice and opportunity to cure as provided in the Guaranty, Guarantor shall default in the performance or observance of any term of the Guaranty;

(j) if at any time it is determined that five percent (5%) or more of the Residential Leases or the Residential Tenants (or a combination thereof) fail to comply with the criteria set forth in Exhibit H for Residential Leases and Residential Tenants as a result of Tenant's actions or failure to act (but not as a result of any default, act, omission, misrepresentation, misstatement or fraud by a Residential Tenant, provided that Tenant takes such actions as provided in this Section 24.01(h) after Tenant becomes aware of such default, act, omission, misrepresentation, misstatement or fraud) (each being a Residential Criteria Default and collectively, Residential Criteria Defaults), and Tenant does not commence to cure such Residential Criteria Defaults within thirty (30) days after notice thereof by Landlord to Tenant specifying such failure or cure such Residential Criteria Defaults within thirteen (13) months after such notice (either such failure being, a Leasing Default); and

(k) if any of the following occur (each of the following individually and collectively referred to as a Bankruptcy Default)

(i) if Tenant shall admit, in writing, that it is unable to pay its debts as such become due;

(ii) if Tenant shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(iii) if Tenant shall file a voluntary petition under the Bankruptcy Code or if such petition is filed against it, and an order for relief is entered, or if Tenant shall file any petition or answer seeking, consenting to or acquiescing in any reorganization, arrangement, composition, other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, or shall seek or consent to or acquiesce in or suffer the appointment of any trustee, receiver, custodian, assignee, sequestrator, liquidator or other similar official of Tenant, or of all or any substantial part of its properties or of the Premises or any interest therein of Tenant, or if Tenant shall take any corporate action in furtherance of any action described in Sections 24.01(h)(ii), (iii) or (iv) hereof;

(iv) if within ninety (90) days after the commencement of any proceeding against Tenant seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or any future federal bankruptcy code or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, such proceeding shall not have been dismissed, or if, within ninety (90) days after the appointment, without the consent or acquiescence of Tenant, of any trustee, receiver, custodian, assignee, sequestrator, liquidator or other similar official of Tenant or of all or any substantial part of its properties or of the Premises or any interest therein of Tenant or such appointment shall not have been vacated or stayed on appeal or otherwise, or if, within thirty (30) days after the expiration of any such stay, such appointment shall not have been vacated.

Section 24.02. Expiration and Termination of Lease.

(a) If any Event of Default (other than a Bankruptcy Default or Leasing Default) shall occur, Landlord (subject to Section 24.14 below) may, at any time thereafter, at its option, give notice to Tenant stating that this Lease and the Term shall expire and terminate on the date specified in such notice, which date shall be not less than twenty (20) days after the giving of such notice, and if, on the date specified in such notice, Tenant shall have failed to cure the breach which was the basis for the Event of Default, then this Lease and the Term and all rights of Tenant under this Lease shall expire and terminate as of the date on which the Event of Default described in clause (i) above occurred or the date specified in the notice given pursuant to clause (ii) above, as the case may be, were the date herein definitely fixed for the expiration of the Term and Tenant immediately shall quit and surrender the Premises.

(b) If an Event of Default described in Sections 24.01(a) & (f) shall occur, or this Lease is terminated as provided in Section 24.02(a), Landlord, without notice, may re-enter and repossess the Premises using such force for that purpose as may be necessary without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor and may dispossess Tenant by summary proceedings or other lawful process.

Section 24.03. Effect of Termination. If this Lease is terminated as provided in Section 24.02(a), or Tenant is dispossessed by summary proceedings or otherwise as provided in Section 24.02(b), hereof:

(a) Tenant shall pay to Landlord all Additional Costs and Impositions payable by Tenant under this Lease to the Expiration Date or to the date of re-entry upon the Premises by Landlord, as the case may be;

(b) Landlord may, (i) complete all construction required to be performed by Tenant hereunder and may repair and alter the Premises in such manner as Landlord may deem necessary or advisable (and may apply to the foregoing all funds, if any, then held by Depository pursuant to Articles 8, 9, 11 or 12) without relieving Tenant of any liability under this Lease or otherwise affecting any such liability, (ii) let or relet the Premises for the whole or any part of the remainder of the Term or for a longer period, in Landlord's name or as agent of Tenant, or (iii) any combination of (i) and (ii), as Landlord determines; and out of any Base Rent, Additional Costs, Impositions and other sums collected or received as a result of such reletting Landlord shall: (1) first, pay to itself the reasonable cost and expense of terminating this Lease, re-entering, retaking, repossessing, completing construction and repairing or altering the Premises, or any part thereof, and the cost and expense of removing all persons and property therefrom, including in such costs brokerage commissions, legal expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, (2) second, pay to itself the reasonable cost and expense sustained in securing a new tenant and other occupant, including in such costs brokerage commissions, legal expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and other expenses of preparing the Premises for reletting, and, if Landlord shall maintain and operate the Premises, the reasonable cost and expense of operating and maintaining the Premises, and (3) third, pay to itself any balance remaining on account of the liability of Tenant to Landlord; Landlord in no way shall be responsible or liable for any failure to relet the Premises or any part thereof, or for any failure to collect any rent due on any such reletting, and no such failure to relet or to collect rent shall operate to relieve Tenant of any liability under this Lease or to otherwise affect any such liability.

Section 24.04. Survival of Obligations. No termination of this Lease pursuant to Section 24.02(a) or taking possession of the Premises pursuant to Section 24.02(b) or reletting the Premises pursuant to Section, or any part thereof, pursuant to Sections 24.03(b), shall relieve Tenant of its liabilities and obligations under this Lease to: (a) achieve Final Completion of the Initial Construction Work (or Restoration if a casualty or condemnation occurred before the Expiration Date) hereunder, and (b) otherwise pay all of its obligations under Section 24.03 which become due through the Expiration Date (but not afterwards); all of which shall survive such expiration, termination, repossession or reletting.

Section 24.05. Tenant's Waiver. To the extent not prohibited by law, Tenant hereby waives and releases all rights now or hereafter conferred by statute or otherwise which would have the effect of limiting or modifying any of the provisions of this Article 24. Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver any instruments which Landlord may request, whether before or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, evidencing such waiver or release.

Section 24.06. Leasing Default.

(a) If any Leasing Default shall occur, Landlord may (subject to Section 24.14 below), at its option, give notice to Tenant stating that Landlord is terminating any Management Agreement then in effect for the Project and removing the Approved Property Manager from the Premises. Thereafter, Landlord, without further notice, may re-enter and repossess the Premises using such force for that purpose as may be necessary without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and undertake any leasing and property management duties, responsibilities or obligations that Landlord deems necessary or desirable for the Project, provided such actions are commercially reasonable and consistent with the management of comparable market rate apartment projects in Fairfax County, Virginia. During any period that Landlord undertakes leasing or property management duties as the result of a Leasing Default, Landlord shall use good faith efforts to cure the Residential Criteria Defaults that resulted in the Leasing Default. Landlord shall not be liable to indictment, prosecution or damages for any actions or failure to act by Landlord in its leasing or property management capacity, except to the extent such action or failure to act was not commercially reasonable. Any sums expended by Landlord in connection with Landlord's duties set forth in this Section 24.06(a) shall be Additional Costs and shall be paid by Tenant in accordance with the terms of this Lease. Failure to pay Additional Costs in accordance with the terms hereof will (after the applicable notice and cure period) constitute an Event of Default by Tenant under Section 24.01(a) above.

(b) In addition to the remedies set forth in this Section 24.06, Landlord may avail itself to any other remedies set forth in this Article 24, except those remedies set forth in Section 24.02 and Section 24.03 above (but subject to Section 24.06(d) below) if Tenant commits an Leasing Default.

(c) Landlord may continue to operate and manage the Project for so long as any of the Residential Criteria Defaults that caused the Leasing Default that resulted in Landlord undertaking any leasing or property management responsibilities for the Project remain uncured. Once all such Residential Criteria Defaults have been cured and Tenant is no longer in a Leasing Default, Tenant shall retain all leasing and property management duties (and may retain an Approved Property Manager for such purposes) in accordance with the terms of this Lease.

(d) In the event that Tenant commits a Leasing Default within thirty-six (36) months after the date on which a prior Leasing Default was cured, in addition to Landlord's rights under this Section 24.06, Landlord may avail itself to any other remedies set forth in this Lease, including the termination of this Lease pursuant to Section 24.02 and Section 24.03 above. Any Residential Criteria Defaults that occurred during any period in which Landlord was responsible for the leasing and management of the Property shall not be considered in determining whether Tenant has committed a Leasing Default.

Section 24.07. Bankruptcy Defaults and Remedies.

(a) If any Bankruptcy Default shall occur, Landlord may (subject to Section 24.14 below), at its option, give notice to Tenant stating that Landlord is terminating any Management Agreement then in effect for the Project and removing the Approved Property Manager from the Premises. Thereafter, Landlord, without further notice, may re-enter and repossess the Premises using such force for that purpose as may be necessary without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and undertake any leasing and property management duties, responsibilities or obligations that Landlord deems necessary or desirable for the Project, provided such actions are commercially reasonable and consistent with the management of comparable market rate apartment projects in Fairfax County, Virginia. Landlord shall not be liable to indictment, prosecution or damages for any actions or failure to act by Landlord in its leasing or property management capacity, except to the extent such action or failure to act was due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord. Any sums expended by Landlord in connection with Landlord's duties set forth in this Section 24.07(a) shall be Additional Costs and shall be paid by Tenant in accordance with the terms of this Lease. Failure to pay such Additional Costs in accordance with the terms hereof will (after the applicable notice and cure period) constitute an Event of Default by Tenant under Section 24.01(a) above.

(b) If an order for relief is entered or if a stay of proceeding or other acts becomes effective in favor of Tenant or Tenant's interest in this Lease in any proceeding which is commenced by or against Tenant under the present or any future Bankruptcy Code or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, Landlord shall be entitled to invoke any and all rights and remedies available to it under such bankruptcy code, statute, law or this Lease, including, without limitation, such rights and remedies as may be necessary to adequately assure the complete and continuous future performance of all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease (including without limitation, the obligations set forth in Articles 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 19, 20, 24, 26 and 37 of this Lease).

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Article 24 (other than Section 24.14) to the contrary, Landlord and Tenant agree that, in the event a Bankruptcy Default hereunder results in a liquidation of Tenant's assets under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, Landlord, to the extent permitted by law or by leave of the court having jurisdiction over such proceeding, shall have the right, at its election, to terminate this Lease on ten (10) days' notice to Tenant, Tenant as debtor-in-possession or said trustee and upon the expiration of said ten (10) day period this Lease shall cease and expire as aforesaid and Tenant, Tenant as debtor-in-possession or trustee shall immediately quit and surrender the Premises as aforesaid.

(d) Nothing contained in this Article 24 shall limit or prejudice the right of Landlord to prove and obtain as liquidated damages in any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization or dissolution proceeding an amount equal to the maximum allowed by statute or rule of law governing such proceeding and in effect at the time when such damages are to be proved, whether or not such amount shall be greater than, equal to or less than the amount of the damages referred to in any of the preceding Sections of this Article 24.

Section 24.08. No Reinstatement. No receipt of moneys by Landlord from Tenant after the termination of this Lease, or after the giving of any notice of the termination of this Lease (unless such receipt cures the Event of Default which was the basis for the notice), shall reinstate, continue or extend the Term or affect any notice theretofore given to Tenant, or operate as a waiver of the right of Landlord to enforce the payment of Base Rent, Additional Costs or Impositions payable by Tenant hereunder or thereafter falling due, or operate as a waiver of the right of Landlord to recover possession of the Premises by proper remedy, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, it being agreed that after the service of notice to terminate this Lease or the commencement of any suit or summary proceedings, or after a final order or judgment for the possession of the Premises, Landlord may demand, receive and collect any moneys due or thereafter falling due without in any manner affecting such notice, proceeding, order, suit or judgment, all such moneys collected being deemed payments on account of the use and operation of the Premises or, at the election of Landlord, on account of Tenant's liability hereunder.

Section 24.09. Waiver of Notice of Re-Entry; Waiver of Jury Trial. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or as prohibited by applicable law, Tenant hereby expressly waives the service of any notice of intention to re-enter provided for in any statute, or of the institution of legal proceedings to that end, and Tenant, for and on behalf of itself and all persons claiming through or under Tenant, also waives any and all right of redemption provided by any law or statute now in force or hereafter enacted or otherwise, or re-entry or repossession or to restore the operation of this Lease in case Tenant shall be dispossessed by a judgment or by warrant of any court or judge or in case of re-entry or repossession by Landlord or in case of any expiration or termination of this Lease, and Landlord and Tenant waive and shall waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by either of the parties hereto against the other on any matter whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, or any claim of injury or damage. The terms re-enter, re-entered, re-entry or re-entry, as used in this Lease are not restricted to their technical legal meaning.

Section 24.10. No Waiver by Landlord. No failure by Landlord or any prior Landlord to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant, agreement, term or condition of this Lease or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof, and no acceptance of full or partial amounts due to Landlord from Tenant under this Lease during the continuance of any such breach, shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or of such covenant, agreement, term or condition. No covenant, agreement, term or condition of this Lease to be performed or complied with by Tenant, and no breach thereof, shall be waived, altered or modified except by a written instrument executed by Landlord. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter this Lease, but each and every covenant, agreement, term and condition of this Lease still continue in full force and effect with respect to any other than existing or subsequent breach thereof.

Section 24.11. Injunction. In the event of any breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of the covenants, agreements, terms or conditions contained in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to enjoin such breach or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any rights and remedies allowed at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise as though re-entry, summary proceedings, and other remedies were not provided for in this Lease.

Section 24.12. Rights Cumulative. Each right and remedy of Landlord provided for in this Lease shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by Landlord of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by Landlord of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Lease or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise.

Section 24.13. Enforcement Costs. If Landlord is the prevailing party, Tenant shall pay to Landlord all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by Landlord in any action or proceeding to which Landlord may be made a party by reason of any act or omission of Tenant. If Landlord is the prevailing party, Tenant also shall pay to Landlord all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by Landlord in enforcing any of the covenants and provisions of this Lease and incurred in any action brought by Landlord against Tenant on account of the provisions hereof, and all such costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements may be included in and form a part of any judgment entered in any proceeding brought by Landlord against Tenant on or under this Lease. All of the sums paid or obligations incurred by Landlord as aforesaid, with interest at the Involuntary Rate, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord within fifteen (15) days after demand by Landlord.

Section 24.14. Mortgagee Protections. Nothing contained in this Articles 24 shall be deemed to modify the provisions of Section 10.04 and Section 10.05 hereof.

OPERATION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE PROJECT; RESIDENTIAL UNITS; BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 26.01. Property Manager. Provided that no Event of Default exists, Tenant may select and enter into an agreement for the management and operation of the Premises with any party without the consent of Landlord if such party is an Affiliate of Tenant or such parties satisfies the following requirements: (a) such proposed property manager, or the officer or manager having supervisory responsibility for the Project has at least five (5) years experience operating residential projects similar in size to or larger than the Project, (b) such proposed property manager is not one against whom any action or proceeding is pending to enforce rights of the Commonwealth of Virginia or any agency, department, public authority or public benefit corporation thereof arising out of a mortgage obligation to the Commonwealth of Virginia or to any such agency, department, public authority or public benefit corporation, and (c) such proposed property manager is not one with respect to whom any notice of default which remains uncured has been given by the Commonwealth of Virginia or any agency, department, public authority or any public benefit corporation thereof arising out of a contractual obligation to the Commonwealth of Virginia or to any such agency, department, public authority or public benefit corporation. Tenant shall, prior to the effective date of any such management agreement, notify Landlord of the proposed management agreement and submit to Landlord all information and documents Landlord may reasonably require for its review with respect to the criteria set forth above. If Landlord determines that the third-party manager does not comply with the foregoing criteria, Landlord shall so advise Tenant in writing within twenty (20) Business Days, specifying in what respect the proposed third-party manager does not conform to the requirements above. In such event, Tenant shall submit a different third-party manager for Landlord's review in accordance with the terms of this Section or provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to Landlord that such third-party property manager has satisfied the criteria set forth above. Each review by Landlord shall be carried out within twenty (20) Business Days of the date of delivery of the information requested hereunder, and if Landlord does not notify Tenant of its determination within such twenty (20) Business Day period, Landlord shall be deemed to have determined that the third-party property manager is satisfactory. Each property manager that satisfies the requirements of this Section 26.01 shall be an Approved Property Manager and any management agreement between Tenant and an Approved Property Manager with respect to the Project shall be a Management Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Wesley Property Management Company, a Virginia limited liability company or an Affiliate of the Tenant is an Approved Property Manager under this Lease. Tenant shall not enter into a management agreement with a new third-party property manager or consent to the assignment by an Approved Property Manager of its interest under its Management Agreement, without first complying with the notification and verification requirements set forth in this Section 26.01.

Section 26.02. Compliance with the Housing Criteria. Tenant covenant and agrees at all times to comply with Exhibit H (as now in effect or as may be amended from time to time during the Term) with respect to any and all Residential Units in the Project.

Section 26.04. Residential Leases.

(a) Notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, Tenant may, without Landlord's consent, enter into residential tenant leases which meet the lease criteria set forth on Exhibit H hereto (all residential leases meeting such criteria being herein referred to, collectively, as Residential Leases), provided no Event of Default shall have occurred and then be continuing hereunder, unless such Event of Default is cured simultaneously with such subletting, and Tenant shall have complied with the provisions of this Section 26.04. Residential Leases shall mean tenant leases by Tenant of residential units to certain residential tenants meeting the financial and reporting requirements set forth on Exhibit H (all residential tenants meeting such criteria being herein referred to, collectively, as Residential Tenants).

(b) Each Residential Lease shall obligate the Residential Tenant pursuant thereto to occupy and use the premises included therein for purposes consistent with the Requirements, the financial and reporting conditions set forth on Exhibit H and the provisions of this Lease. Except as otherwise provided below, with respect to each and every Residential Lease under the provisions of this Lease, it is further agreed that:

(i) no Residential Lease shall be for a term of more than one (1) year;

(ii) each Residential Lease shall specifically state that (A) it is subject to all of the terms, covenants, agreements, provisions, and conditions of this Lease, (B) subject to the rights of any Mortgagee, if Tenant defaults in the payment of any Base Rent, Additional Costs or Impositions beyond any applicable notice and cure periods under this Lease, each Residential Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand, any and all rent and other sums due or accruing to Tenant under such Residential Lease, and (C) subject to the rights of any Mortgagee, if there is a termination of this Lease, or if Landlord shall exercise its rights to dispossess Tenant or to re-enter the Premises, any Residential Tenant which is not an Affiliate of Tenant will at Landlord's election, attorn to Landlord and Landlord will have all rights of a Residential Tenant under such Residential Lease, including without limitation, the right to enforce those rights by court proceeding or otherwise;

(iii) the receipt by Landlord of any amounts from any Residential Tenant or other occupant of any part of the Premises shall not be deemed or construed as releasing Tenant from Tenant's obligations hereunder; and

(iv) the Residential Tenant will not pay rent or other sums under the Residential Lease more than one (1) month in advance (excluding security and other deposits required under such Residential Lease).

(c) Tenant shall enforce its rights as the landlord under all Residential Leases.

Section 26.05. Residential Lease Not a Transfer. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Lease to the contrary, a Residential Lease shall not require Landlord's prior consent and shall not be deemed a Transfer hereunder.

Section 26.06. Acts of Residential Tenants. The fact that a violation or breach of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Lease results from or is caused by an act or omission by any Residential Tenant, or subtenant of a Residential Tenant, shall not relieve Tenant of Tenant's obligation to cure the same. Tenant shall take any and all reasonable steps necessary to prevent any such violation or breach.

Section 26.07. Collection of Rental Payments from Residential Tenants. Landlord, after an Event of Default by Tenant, may, subject to the rights of any Mortgagee under this Lease, collect sub rent and all other sums due under the Residential Leases, and apply the net amount collected to any amounts due to Landlord under this Lease (including without limitation, Additional Costs and Impositions), but no such collection shall be, or be deemed to be, a waiver of any agreement, term, covenant or condition of this Lease or the acceptance by Landlord of any Residential Tenant as tenant hereunder, or a release of Tenant from performance by Tenant of its obligations under this Lease.

Section 26.08. Record Keeping. At all times during the Term, Tenant shall maintain at its principal place of business or such other place as agreed to by Landlord and Tenant, a complete and accurate set of files, books and records in connection with the Project and with respect to the operation and maintenance of the Project, including without limitation, compliance with any and all requirements of the Exhibit H of this Lease. At all times during the Term, Landlord may, at such reasonable times during normal business hours and upon reasonable advanced notice, inspect Tenant's files, books, records and related material pertaining to compliance with requirements of Exhibit H of this Lease and pertaining to maintenance of the Project. Tenant agrees that Landlord, or any of its duly authorized representatives, shall, until the expiration of three (3) years after the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, have access to the records related to compliance with requirements of Exhibit H of this Lease and maintenance of the Project. Tenant shall: (i) keep and maintain accurate, true, and complete books and records (A) with respect to all requirements of Exhibit H of this Lease, and (B) which shall fully reflect the physical condition and maintenance status of the Project, together with all business licenses and permits required to be kept and maintained pursuant to the provisions of any Applicable Laws, and (ii) upon Landlord's request therefor, certify such files, books and records to Landlord as true, complete, and accurate in all material respects.

Section 26.09. Rent Roll. Upon Landlord's request (which will be limited to no more than two (2) times in any calendar year and at any time when Tenant is in an Event of Default under this Lease), Tenant will provide: (i) a copy of a rent roll for the Project showing the name of each Residential Tenant, the Residential Unit occupied, the Residential Lease expiration date, the rent payable for the current month, and the date through which rent has been paid; and (ii) a monthly property management report for the Project, showing the number of inquiries made and rental applications received from prospective Residential Tenants and deposits received from Residential Tenants, and materials relating to marketing and leasing efforts for the Project.

In amplification and not in limitation of the foregoing, Tenant shall not permit any portion of the Premises to be used by any person or persons or by the public, as such, at any time or times during the term of this Lease, in such manner as might impair Landlord's title to or interest in the Premises or any portion thereof, or in such manner as might reasonably make possible a claim or claims of adverse use, adverse possession, prescription, dedication, or other similar claims of, in, to or with respect to the Premises or any part thereof.

Section 27.04. Easements. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 27.03 to the contrary, Tenant shall have the right to create customary and ordinary utility and other operationally related easements which are reasonably required in connection with any Construction Work or operation of the Premises for the Permitted Uses; provided that Tenant provides each such easement to Landlord for its prior written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Landlord shall review any proposed easement (or modification thereof) within twenty (20) Business Days of its receipt of such easement from Tenant. If Landlord has not notified Tenant of its determination within the applicable period, Landlord shall be deemed to have approved such easement. Landlord agrees that if required by the applicable utility provider or other easement grantee, Landlord shall join in the execution of such easements as approved by Landlord in accordance with the provisions of this Section 27.04.

CONSENTS AND APPROVALS

Section 30.01. Consent Not a Waiver. Tenant hereby expressly covenants and warrants that as to all matters requiring Landlord's consent or approval under the terms of this Lease Tenant shall secure such consent or approval for each and every happening of the event requiring such consent or approval, and shall not claim any waiver on the part of Landlord of the requirement to secure such consent or approval.

As part of such demand, the moving party shall identify a mediator. If the non-moving party does not agree with the mediator chosen by the moving party, the non-moving party shall send written notice to the moving party of its decision and choose its own mediator within five (5) Business Days thereafter, and Landlord's and Tenant's mediators shall work together and within ten (10) Business Days thereafter, choose a mediator agreeable to both mediators from a list of approved mediators from the AAA (defined below). (Lease Guaranty)

THIS COMPLETION GUARANTY (this "Guaranty") is made and entered into this ____ day of _____, 2015, by WESLEY HOUSING DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, INC., a Virginia non-profit corporation ("Guarantor") for the benefit of the BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA, a political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Virginia, acting in its proprietary capacity and not in its governmental or regulatory capacity, as landlord under the Ground Lease (defined below) ("Landlord").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, Landlord and Wesley Lewinsville Limited Partnership, a Virginia limited partnership ("Tenant") entered into that certain Deed of Lease dated as of the date hereof (the "Ground Lease"), covering certain real property located in Fairfax County, Virginia, more particularly described therein;

WHEREAS, as a material inducement to Landlord entering into the Ground Lease, Tenant is obligated to construct the Initial Construction Work (as defined in the Ground Lease) and to cause the delivery of a completion guaranty securing the payment and performance of Tenant's obligations to complete the Initial Construction Work under the Ground Lease;

WHEREAS, Tenant has caused the delivery of this Guaranty by Guarantor, to satisfy Tenant's obligations with respect to the foregoing Recital; and

WHEREAS, Guarantor will receive material benefit from the execution of this Guaranty and the execution of the Ground Lease by Tenant;

NOW, THEREFORE, for valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor hereby guarantees the Guaranteed Obligations (hereinafter defined) upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Incorporation of Recitals; Defined Terms. The Recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated in this Guaranty by this reference. Capitalized terms used in this Guaranty and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Ground Lease.

2. Guaranteed Obligations. Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to the payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations in this Guaranty. The term "Guaranteed Obligations," as used herein means the timely payment and performance of all of Tenant's obligations to complete and deliver the Initial Construction Work under the Ground Lease; including, without limitation: (i) the full and timely performance of all of the Initial Construction Work in strict accordance with the terms of the Ground Lease, free and clear of any and all liens or encumbrances which may arise from, or in any way relate to the Initial Construction Work (except and limited to the extent such liens or encumbrances or expressly provided for in the Ground Lease); and (ii) the full and timely payment of all contractors, subcontractors, materialmen, engineers, architects or other persons or entities who have rendered or furnished services or materials for the Initial Construction Work that are the obligations of Tenant under the Ground Lease. Nothing in this Section is intended to transfer, waive or release Tenant from its obligations for the Final Completion of the Initial Construction Work under the Ground Lease.

3. Enforcement of Guaranty. Upon the occurrence of a default by Tenant in the timely payment or performance, as the case may be, of any of its obligations under the Ground Lease which constitute Guaranteed Obligations hereunder (or any part thereof) and which continues beyond any applicable notice and cure periods provided for in the Ground Lease, Guarantor shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of notice from Landlord, pay or perform any Guaranteed Obligations then to be paid or performed, at its sole cost and expense.

4. Cumulative Remedies. The exercise by Landlord of any right or remedy hereunder or under any other instrument, or at law or in equity, shall not preclude the concurrent or subsequent exercise of any other right or remedy; provided however, that in any event Landlord shall be entitled to only one recovery (i.e. no "double recovery") for each of the Guaranteed Obligations from Tenant and Guarantor, collectively.

5. Direct Action Against Guarantor. It shall not be necessary for Landlord, in order to enforce the Guaranteed Obligations, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against Tenant or others liable on such indebtedness, liability, undertaking, or obligation, or to enforce its rights against any security which shall ever have been given to secure the same. Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that it is a primary party of this Guaranty and not merely a surety of the Ground Lease.

6. Unimpaired Liability. Guarantor hereby agrees that its obligations under the terms of this Guaranty shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced, or affected by the occurrence of any one or more of the following events: (a) the taking or accepting of any other security or guaranty for any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations; (b) any release, surrender, exchange, subordination, or loss of any security at any time existing in connection with any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations; (c) the insolvency, bankruptcy, or lack of partnership or corporate power of Tenant, or any party at any time liable for any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations, whether now existing or hereafter occurring; (d) any neglect, delay, omission, failure, or refusal of Landlord to take or prosecute any action for the collection of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or to foreclose or take or prosecute any action in connection with any instrument or agreement evidencing or securing all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (e) subject to Section 3 above, the existence of any claim, setoff, counterclaim, defense or other rights which Guarantor may have against Tenant or Landlord, whether in connection with the Project or any other transaction; (f) any assignment of the Ground Lease or the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof; (g) any termination of the Ground Lease or dispossession of Tenant under the Ground Lease as a result of an uncured Event of Default by Tenant prior to the Final Completion of the Initial Construction Work; (h) the unenforceability of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations against Tenant by reason of the fact that the act of creating the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, is ultra vires, or the officers creating same acted in excess of their authority; (i) any payment by Tenant to Landlord in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is held to constitute a preference under the bankruptcy laws or if for any other reason Landlord is required to refund such payment or pay the amount thereof to someone else; or (j) any impairment, modification, release, or limitation of liability of Tenant or its estate in bankruptcy, resulting from the operation of any present or future provision of the Bankruptcy Code of the United States or from the decision of any court interpreting same.

7. Binding Effect. This Guaranty is for the benefit of Landlord and its respective successors and assigns.

8. Representations and Warranties. Guarantor represents and warrants that (a) it will receive a direct or indirect material benefit from the execution and delivery of the Ground Lease; (b) this Guaranty has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on Guarantor's part and has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized agent of the limited liability company; (c) this Guaranty constitutes Guarantor's valid and legally binding agreement, enforceable in accordance with its terms; (d) Guarantor's execution of this Guaranty will not violate Guarantor's organizational documents or result in the breach of, or conflict with, or result in the acceleration of, any obligation under any guaranty, indenture, credit facility or other instrument to which Guarantor or any of its assets may be subject or violate any order, judgment or decree to which Guarantor or any of its assets is subject; (e) no action, suit, proceeding or investigation, judicial, administrative or otherwise (including without limitation any reorganization, bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding), currently is pending or, to the best of Guarantor's knowledge, threatened against Guarantor which, either in any one instance or in the aggregate, may have a material adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to perform its obligations under this Guaranty; and (f) Guarantor is currently solvent and will not be rendered insolvent by providing this Guaranty.

9. Affirmative Covenants. At all times until the Guaranteed Obligations have been fully satisfied, Guarantor will maintain the covenants set forth herein:

a. Financial Covenants. At all times until the Guaranteed Obligations have been fully satisfied, Guarantor (collectively, not individually) shall comply the following financial covenants:

(i) Net Worth Covenant. Guarantor will maintain a tangible aggregate net worth at least equal to Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000). For purposes of this Guaranty, tangible aggregate net worth means, as of a given date, Guarantor's equity calculated in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles by subtracting total liabilities from total tangible assets.

(ii) Liquidity. Guarantor will maintain liquidity at least equal to Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000). For purposes of this Guaranty, liquidity means (A) cash, (B) cash equivalents, (C) unencumbered, marketable securities and (D) immediately available, unused lines of credit.

b. Financial Reporting Requirements. Every twelve (12) months after execution of this Guaranty, and at such other times as Landlord may reasonably request (including, without limitation, at any time after the occurrence and during the existence of an Event of Default under the Ground Lease), Guarantor shall provide a financial statement, certified by Guarantor to be true and correct in all material respects, with sufficient detail, as reasonably requested by Landlord, for Landlord to determine that such Guarantor has satisfied its financial covenants set forth herein.

c. Corporate Existence. Guarantor will do any and all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its corporate status in good standing under the laws of the state of its organization and in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

10. Waiver and Subordination. Guarantor (a) waives to the fullest extent permitted by law: (i) any rights that Guarantor may have against Tenant by reason of any one or more payments or acts in compliance with the obligations of Guarantor hereunder, (ii) to assert a counterclaim, other than a mandatory or compulsory counterclaim, in any action or proceeding brought against Guarantor, (iii) all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to sureties or guarantors, except any rights of subrogation and contribution (the exercise of which are subject to the terms of this Guaranty), and (iv) to presentment for payment, demand, protest, notice of nonpayment or failure to perform or observe, or any other proof, notice or demand (except as may be otherwise expressly required herein); and (b) subordinates any liability or indebtedness of Tenant held by Guarantor to the obligations of Tenant to Landlord under the Ground Lease for the Guaranteed Obligations. Guarantor agrees that any liability or indebtedness of Tenant held by Guarantor is subordinate to Tenant's obligations to Landlord under the Ground Lease. Guarantor agrees that no payment by it under this Guaranty shall give rise to any rights of subrogation against Tenant.

11. Enforcement Costs. Guarantor hereby agrees to pay, on written demand by Landlord, all costs incurred by Landlord in collecting any amount payable under this Guaranty or enforcing or protecting its rights under the Guaranty in each case whether or not legal proceedings are commenced. Such fees and expenses include, without limitation, reasonable fees for attorneys and other hired professionals, court fees, costs incurred in connection with pre-trial, trial and appellate level proceedings (including discovery and expert witnesses), costs incurred in post-judgment collection efforts or in any bankruptcy proceeding. Amounts incurred by Landlord shall be immediately due and payable, and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement until paid in full, if not paid in full within ten (10) business days after Landlord's written demand for payment at a rate equal to twelve percent (12%) per annum, compounded monthly, or the highest amount allowed by law, whichever is less. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Landlord elects to proceed directly against Guarantor in accordance with Section 5 above, prior to either, (a) an agreement between Tenant and Landlord of liability and amounts payable for the Guaranteed Obligations, or (b) a determination of a court of competent jurisdiction as to the liability and amounts of the Guaranteed Obligations to be paid or performed by Tenant under the Ground Lease.

Any notice, demand, statement, request or consent made hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to be received by the addressee on the day such notice is delivered in hand, on the following day if tendered to a nationally recognized overnight delivery service or on the third day following the day such notice is deposited with the United States Postal Service first class certified mail, return receipt requested, in either instance, addressed to the address, as set forth below, of the party to whom such notice is to be given, or to such other address as either party shall in like manner designate in writing. Exhibit H

Criteria for Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Units, Tenants, Rents and Eligible Household Income

The Project shall be used as a residential rental development having one hundred percent (100%) of its eighty-two (82) dwelling units in the development operated as affordable senior housing (such dwelling units may be referred to as "Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Units" or as "ASH Unit(s)"). At all times during the term of the Lease Tenant shall maintain, as applicable, all ASH Units in compliance with: (a) as and when applicable, the federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Program ("LIHTC Program") laws, rules, and regulations and/or the applicable requirements of the Virginia Housing Development Authority and, (b) the Fairfax County Affordable Dwelling Unit Program as set forth in the now-existing Fairfax County Zoning Ordinance ("ADU Program") and with the terms and conditions of the Lease and this Exhibit H thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, so long as an ASH Unit is subject to the regulatory restrictions of the LIHTC Program, then Tenant shall comply with the requirements of (a) and (b) above with respect to such ASH Unit, provided that to the extent any provision of the ADU Program or this Lease would require Tenant to violate any LIHTC Program law, rule, and/or regulation, then the LIHTC Program law, rule, or regulation shall control. At such time as an ASH Unit is not a subject to the regulatory restrictions of the LIHTC Program (i.e., after the expiration of the extended use restriction period), then Tenant need only comply with requirements of (b) with respect to such ASH Unit.

1. Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Unit Floor Area

A. The average net rentable square footage for all ASH Units in the Project shall be approximately as follows:

1-Bedroom Unit:	624 square feet
2-Bedroom Unit:	880 square feet

The floor area for such ASH Units shall be determined in accordance with the net rentable square footage definition of the Zoning Ordinance, except the following features will not represent any part of the net rentable square footage: balconies, porches, decks, breezeways, stoops and stairs which may be roofed but which have at least one open side; or breezeways which may be roofed but which have two (2) open ends. An open side or open end shall have no more than fifty (50) percent of the total area between the side(s), roof and floor enclosed with railings, walls, or architectural features.

B. Nothing included herein precludes the developer from providing larger sized units, in terms of the square footage and/or number of bedrooms.

2. Designation on Approved Plans

Approved site plans and building plans shall include a table setting forth the number of units in each of the bedroom count categories and shall demonstrate that such units meet the minimum floor area limitations. The ASH Units accepted as part of proffered conditions associated with a rezoning application for the Project and included on approved site plans shall be deemed features shown for purposes of Va. Code Ann. §15.2-2232 and, as such, shall not require further approvals pursuant thereto in the event the Board of Supervisors shall acquire or lease such units.

3. Administration of Rental Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Units

A. All ASH Units are to be initially leased for a minimum six (6) -month term with a maximum term of one (1) year and maximum renewal term(s) of one (1) year to tenants who meet the eligibility criteria established in accordance with the Lease, including, but not limited to, the terms of this Exhibit H and/or all applicable LIHTC Program requirements. Such leases are referred to as "Senior Housing Leases" and qualified tenant occupants of such ASH Units are referred to herein as "Senior Housing Tenants." The Senior Housing Leases for ASH Units shall include conditions that require the Senior Housing Tenant to occupy the ASH Unit as his or her domicile, that prohibit the subleasing of the unit, that require continued compliance with the applicable eligibility criteria, and that require the Senior Housing Tenant to annually verify under oath, on a form approved by the Fairfax County Department of Housing and Community Development ("DHCD"), the total household annual income and such other facts that the Tenant may require in order to ensure that the Senior Housing Tenant household continues to meet the applicable eligibility criteria. The fact that a Senior Housing Tenant applicant does not possess a housing choice (a/k/a "Section 8") voucher or other subsidy shall not be a permissible reason for Tenant to reject or discriminate against such applicant.

B.

- (1) As used in this Exhibit, area median income ("AMI"), or any specified percentage of AMI, means the annual estimate of area median income, or percentage thereof, for the Washington Metropolitan Statistical Area ("WMSA") published by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), as adjusted for household size.
- (2) Senior Housing Tenant households must continue to meet the eligibility and income criteria set forth in this Exhibit H in order to continue occupancy of the ASH Unit, provided, that (a) during any period in which a unit is subject to LIHTC Program restrictions, a Senior Housing Tenant household will continue to be eligible so long as it complies with LIHTC Program requirements, and (b) during any period in which a unit is not subject to LIHTC Program restrictions, a Senior Housing Tenant household will continue to be eligible so long as its income does not exceed 100% of AMI . However, a Senior Housing Tenant household that no longer meets such criteria may continue to occupy an ASH Unit until the end of the applicable lease term.

- (3) ASH Units may not be subleased.

C. Within fifteen (15) days of the end of each quarter , the Tenant shall provide the DHCD with a certified statement as of the first of such quarter providing for:

- (1) The address and name of the Project and the name of the Tenant.
- (2) The number of ASH Units by bedroom count and floor area, which are vacant.

(3) The number of ASH Units by bedroom count and floor area that are leased. For each such unit, the statement shall contain the following information:

- (i) The unit number, address, bedroom count and floor area.
- (ii) The Senior Housing Tenant's name and household size.
- (iii) The effective date of the Senior Housing Lease.
- (iv) The Senior Housing Tenant's household income as of the date of the lease as certified by such Senior Housing Tenant and confirmed by acceptable third party verification for initial occupancy certification only).
- (v) The current monthly rent.
- (vi) The Area Median Income (AMI) level.

(4) That to the best of the Tenant's information and belief, the tenant households who lease ASH Units meet the eligibility criteria established in accordance with the Lease, including, but not limited to, the terms of this Exhibit H and, to the extent applicable, the LIHTC Program requirements.

(5) The Tenant will provide the DHCD with a copy of each new or revised annual tenant verification obtained from the renters of ASH Units pursuant to Paragraph B above.

D. Distribution of Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Units by AMI Level and Unit Type. The table below sets forth the number of ASH Units of each unit type that shall be occupied by households having incomes that do not exceed thirty percent (30%) and fifty percent (50%) of AMI, as applicable.

Area Median Income (AMI)	One-Bedroom	Two-Bedroom	Total	Percent of Units
30% AMI	8	1	9	11.00%
50% AMI	64	9	73	89.00%
Total	72	10	82	100.00%

If a household that initially as a 30% AMI household later increases its income, as evidenced by a later annual income recertification, such that such household's income then exceeds 50% AMI, such household shall, from that point forward, be considered as a 50% AMI household. As units become vacant, Tenant shall lease such units with households whose incomes fall into a category (based on unit size and AMI) that is under-represented based on the table above.

E. Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Unit Rental Pricing. The maximum rent charged to the Senior Housing Tenant for each ASH Unit at each AMI tier, including those ASH units provided for by the ADU Program, shall be calculated and reset each year throughout the term of the Lease pursuant to the formula established under the federal LIHTC Program and administered by the Virginia Development Housing Authority under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, provided however, that in the event such LIHTC Program should be terminated or discontinued at any time during the term of the Lease, all units, without exception of those units subject to the ADU Program, shall be deemed to be affordable to a tenant household if the monthly rent charged to the Senior Housing Tenant for that unit, together with reasonable utility costs, does not exceed thirty percent (30%) of the monthly gross income of households whose incomes do not exceed, as applicable, thirty percent (30%) and fifty percent (50%) of the annual AMI as established above. This method of establishing annual rent charged to the Senior Housing Tenant will continue to apply to all ASH Units both during and after the period of time that the LIHTC Program is in effect for any of the ASH Units (including those units subject to the ADU Program) and shall continue through the end of the lease term. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if rental subsidy payments are made to or on behalf of a tenant household under the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program (either tenant- or project-based) or any other rental subsidy program, then (x) the unit shall be deemed affordable if the tenant's share of rent and utilities does not exceed the maximum amount described above, and (y) such tenant may occupy any ASH Unit as long as the tenant's share of the rent and utilities does not exceed the maximum amount described above and the tenant's household income is at or below the designated AMI applicable to the unit.

F. Eligible Senior Housing Tenant Household Incomes. The maximum eligible household gross income for Senior Housing Tenant households for each ASH Unit at each AMI level shall be calculated and reset each year using HUD's annual estimate of AMI for the WMSA as referenced above, adjusted for household size, and applied in accordance with LIHTC Program, the ADU Program.

G. Household Size. The minimum household size for any unit shall be one person per bedroom. The maximum household size for any unit shall not exceed the applicable limits of state and local laws and regulations and any limits of federal programs applicable to the Project.

4. [Reserved]

5. Occupancy of Affordable Housing Units

A. Before a prospective Senior Housing Tenant may rent an ASH Unit, he or she must meet the eligibility criteria established in the Lease and this Exhibit H, including, but not limited to the household income limitations for eligible households. The Tenant is responsible for determining that the proposed Senior Housing Tenant household meets the eligibility criteria applicable to a Senior Housing Tenant household for the applicable ASH Unit at a particular AMI level.

B. Senior Housing Tenants must occupy the ASH Units as their domicile and shall provide an executed affidavit on an annual basis certifying their continuing occupancy of the units. Senior Housing Tenants shall provide such affidavit to the Tenant by the date that may be specified in their Senior Housing Lease or that may otherwise be specified by the Tenant.

C. The Senior Housing Lease shall provide that in the event a Senior Housing Tenant fails to provide Tenant with an executed affidavit as provided for in the preceding paragraph within thirty (30) days after a written request for such affidavit, then the Senior Housing Lease shall [automatically] terminate, become null and void, and shall require the occupant to vacate the unit within thirty (30) days after written notice from the Tenant and Tenant shall take appropriate enforcement action when necessary if such Senior Housing Tenant fails to vacate the applicable unit. Provided Tenant has acted in accordance with the foregoing, a failure by a Senior Housing Tenant to vacate a unit will not be considered a Senior Housing Criteria Default under the terms of the Lease.

D. Except as specifically provided for in the Lease, this Exhibit H, and pursuant to the LIHTC Program, for those ASH Units to which the LIHTC Program is applicable, if a renter of an ASH Unit no longer meets the Senior Housing Tenant criteria, as a result of increased income or other factors (subject to Section 3.B of this Exhibit H), then at the end of the applicable Senior Housing Lease term, Tenant shall require the occupant to vacate that ASH Unit and Tenant shall take appropriate enforcement action when necessary if such Senior Housing Tenant fails to vacate the applicable unit. Provided Tenant has acted in accordance with the foregoing, a failure by a Senior Housing Tenant to vacate a unit will not be considered a Senior Housing Criteria Default under the terms of the Lease.

E. The Senior Housing Lease shall provide that in the event a Senior Housing Tenant fails to occupy the applicable ASH Unit for a period in excess ninety (90) days, unless such failure is approved in writing by Tenant (for example, if a Senior Housing Tenant is hospitalized for over 90 days), a default under the applicable Senior Housing Lease shall occur. The Senior Housing Lease shall automatically terminate, become null and void and Tenant shall require occupants to vacate the ASH Unit within thirty (30) days of written notice from the Tenant and Tenant shall take appropriate enforcement action when necessary if such Senior Housing Tenant fails to vacate the applicable unit. Provided Tenant has acted in accordance with the foregoing, a failure by a Senior Housing Tenant to vacate a unit will not be considered a Senior Housing Criteria Default under the terms of the Lease.

6. Additional Criteria

A. Utility Charges. The rental charges actually collected by Tenant from Senior Housing Tenants may include or exclude utility charges, at the option of Tenant, and such utility charges may be billed directly from the provider of such utility to the individual Senior Housing Tenants and/or billed separately by Tenant to the individual Senior Housing Tenants.

B. Certification of Income. Tenant shall obtain from each prospective Senior Housing Tenant of an ASH Unit a certification of income in the form attached hereto as Attachment 1 to Exhibit H and made a part hereof, or such other form as approved by Landlord. Annually thereafter, Tenant shall make a determination on the basis of current income of whether the income of any Senior Housing Tenant exceeds the applicable income limit and shall obtain a recertification of income from all tenants of ASH Units on forms approved by Landlord. Upon request of Landlord, copies of all certifications and recertifications shall be furnished to Landlord. Tenant shall maintain in its records the certifications and recertifications for five (5) years or for such longer periods as may be required by the LIHTC Program and the ADU Program.

C. Evidence of Income. In a manner and form agreed to by Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall obtain written evidence substantiating the information given on the Senior Housing Tenant's certifications and recertifications of income and shall retain the evidence in its files for a time supportive of the certification requirements of the immediately preceding clause. Attachment 1 hereto sets forth instructions for verifying and calculating incomes.

D. Senior Housing. Tenant shall not rent any unit to a household unless such household contains at least one person who is at least fifty-five (55) years of age.

E. Number of Affordable Senior Housing Dwelling Units Rented. Tenant shall not permit a Workforce Housing Tenant to rent more than one ASH Unit at any given time.

H. Monthly Reports. Tenant shall prepare, or shall cause the managing agent of the Project to prepare, such reports as may be required by Section 26.08 of the Lease and this Exhibit H.

I. Components of Development.

(i) all of the ASH Units shall be rented or available on a non-transient basis; and

(ii) none of the ASH Units shall be used as a hotel, motel, dormitory, fraternity or sorority house, rooming house, hospital, nursing home, sanatorium or rest home.

J. Continuance of Rental Restriction. Subject to maintenance and repair of ASH Units in the ordinary course of business, and subject to the casualty and condemnation provisions of the Lease, Tenant shall maintain all of the ASH Units rented or available for rental on a continuous basis.

K. [Intentionally Deleted]

L. Furnishing Tenant Information. Tenant agrees to furnish to Landlord, on an annual basis a Certification of Continuing Program Compliance, attached hereto as Attachment 2 to Exhibit H, or such other form as approved by Landlord, and maintain on file Tenant Income Certifications, in the form attached hereto as Attachment 1 to Exhibit H, or such other form as approved by Landlord, in order to permit verification that the covenants set forth in this Lease and this Exhibit H are being satisfied by Tenant.
